= THE COSY CORNER =

DEVOTED PRINCIPALLY TO THE INTERESTS OF WOMEN

This is a little section of the paper, which from day to day will be devoted to subjects of special interest to women. Any and all of the ladies of Prince Rupert are invited to contribute to its columns, and to take part in its discussions. Suggestions and criticisms are invited by the editor. The hope is expressed that "The Cosy Corner" will fill a social need.

SMART, COOL LINEN AND LACE SUIT

demand for blouses are also to be found on the fashionable hosiery. For day wear, however, the stockings always in best taste which match the color of the gown.

HARDWORKING HOME MAKERS

Census List of Questions Class Them as "Unoccupied"

It is time that the census forms which classify wives and mothers as unoccupied women, were changed. Of all the people enumerated, there are very few whose work is more important, or who spend longer hours at their toil than these housewives? Especially, perhaps, is this true in Canada. In other countries the wife of the ordinary mechanic or farmer can obtain assistance. Canadian women as a rule, do their own work.

Who, in fact, works harder, for longer hours, at a greater variety of trades, or to more important and valuable purpose, than does the wife and mother in every family where the income is of modest dimensions? Cook, housemaid, dressmaker, children's nurse, sick nurse, upholstress, washerwoman, gardener, tailor, and carpenter by turns is the workman or middle class man's wife.

Working-men who are fair minded admit that the wife often has a harder and longer day of toil than the husband; yet all such wives, and also all other "female relatives" working in the home, were entered in the census as "unoccupied."

Fish in Custard

Take two small haddock, filleted. Sprinkle each fillet with pepper and salt, roll up and pack into a pie-dish. Beat one egg, add a gill of milk, pour over the fish, and let it bake three-quarters of an hour in a moderate oven.

German Biscuits

Rub four ounces of butter into eight ounces of flour, add four ounces of fine sugar and half a teaspoonful of ground cinnamon, make into a paste with one well-beaten egg. Roll out, not too thin, cut with round cutter, and bake in a moderate oven. When cool spread with jam and stick two together.

A NEW PUBLICATION

Prince Rupert Realty Bulletin Makes Its Appearance

On Saturday the Prince Rupert Realty Bulletin made its debut. It will be published monthly, by its editor, Mr. Jos. F. Swift, and in accordance with its announcement will devote itself to the real estate interests of Prince Rupert and vicinity. The initial number is a very reasonable one, and has many pictorial and magazine features.

The Bulletin is welcomed into the family of Prince Rupert publications.
