THEIR LEAD

Detroit Tigers Safely Ensconced in Leadership of American League By Beating Indians Again

CLEVELAND, April 23:-Detroit Tigers increased their margin of leadership in the American League yesterday to one and a half games by slugging out a 16 to 3 victory over the Cleveland Indians.

St. Louis Browns scored a decisive victory over Chicago White Sox and the Browns, Indians and White Sox are now all tied for fifth place in the league.

Boston Braves retained the leadership of the National League by means of another victory over Brooklyn Dodgers while Chicago Cubs took a close decision from Cincinnati Reds.

New York Giants defeated the Phillies in a free scoring game and joined the Quaker Town Nationals in fifth place ahead of the Dodgers. Yesterday's Big League scores:

National League St. Louis 5, Pittsburg 3. Brooklyn 1. Boston 4. Cincinnati 4, Chicago 5. New York 13, Philadelphia 8.

Another of England's cricket children has now reached its mabigger and better season than ever jority-India. During the coming season a team composed of Hindoos will tour England and play a series of games with the coun ties and picked sides. The experiment has created a great deal of interest as it indicates the game has reached the same high level in India that it has in Australia, South Africa, New Zealand and the West Indies, all of whom now sena teams to England and receive visits from English sides at regular intervals. One of England's cricket minors-a South American teamwill also make a tour in which May 3-Young Elks vs. Young they will meet strong second-class elevens this summer. Most of the counties come into action the following day and begin their challenge for the championship, now held by Yorkshire.

> The coming season will be more than ordinarily interesting as the team which will tour Australia next winter will be chosen. England failed rather dismally in 1922 when the Australians made their last tour and recaptured the "ashes," mythical emblem of the cricket championship of the world. Perhaps England's efforts were made to look rather worse than they really were by the brilliance at the wicket of young Don Bradman and the bowling of Clarence Grimmett.
