THE COSY CORNER

DEVOTED PRINCIPALLY TO THE INTERESTS OF WOMEN

This is a little section of the paper, which from day to day will be devoted to subjects of special interest to women. Any and all of the ladies of Prince Rupert are invited to contribute to its columns, and to take part in its discussions. Suggestions and criticisms are invited by the editor. The hope is expressed that "The Cosy Corner" will fill a social need.

A SMART STREET COSTUME

The model here shown is of old blue pongee and linen lace dyed to match. The combination is very rich and distinctive in style. The sleeves and edge of the jacket and lower edge of the band of lace on the skirt are bordered with a narrow band of blue silk and finished with silk grelots in a shade of blue to match.

The hat is a graceful shape of black crin, trimmed with large flat loops of soft silk in old blue, and a wreath of pink roses.

FASHION NOTELETS

A Peep into the Masculine Mind on Dressiness

It is authoritatively stated that the topaz and sapphire are the latest in gems. The reason for this being that golden-brown and king's blue are to be among the leading colors this year.

* * *

The latest fad among men is the gold monogram button for the coat watch chain. These buttons are also made up in the signets or emblems of the best-known orders.

The latest material for men's ties is not unlike the old-fashioned grenadine that bow ties were made of. The most attractive of these are in two-tone effect, lacy and soft and silky as any feminine fancy.

CAKE BAKING

Pointers to Success for the Young Housewife

The baking of cake puzzles many. A few simple rules attended to will solve all difficulties. Never have the oven too hot, even for ponge cake. If a cake flies up quickly it falls just as quickly. A very homely but a very sure test of the oven is to feel the handle or steel. If you cannot hold it comfortably it is the right temperature; if it burns you when you touch it it is too hot. Do not be guided to the minute by the time given in cookery books—use your judgment, and practice soon teaches you. A cake may one day take a quarter of an hour longer than another day; the heat won't always bake quite the same. Dry out your cakes before removing them from the oven; that is to say, when they are cooked turn off the gas and leave them for ten minutes in the hot oven.

Measures—American, 2 level tablespoons go to 1 ounce; English, 1 heaped tablespoon goes to 1 ounce.

SOCIAL AND PERSONAL

A tea given by the members of the Ladies' Aid of the General Hospital, at the residence of Mrs. W. Stewart Benson, was an unqualified success both socially and financially. The table was beautifully decorated with a centerpiece of white tulle over pink, surmounted by a bowl of pale pink hare-bells and berries. The hostess received in a pretty gown of cream net releived with touches of blue, and was assisted by Mrs. Arnold in a smart costume of golden brown peau-de soie, with large white hat with rose trimming, and Mrs. Eggert in a handsome black gown and hat. Mrs. William Manson in a smart costume of gray silk and tuscan hat with large black plume and handsome trimming, presided at the tea table and was assisted by a bevy of pretty young girls in nurses' costume: Madelaine Nelson, Esther Naden and Muriel Patmore. Miss Mary Milligan of Victoria, sister of Miss Elizabeth Milligan of this city, has arrived in town and is busily engaged in the practice of her profession at the General Hospital.

Mrs. Bullock-Webster was a charming hostess at the tea hour yesterday. The beautiful drawing room was most artistically decorated with wild rododendrons, and other local spring flowers and presented a festive appearance. Mrs. Bullock-Webster wore a lovely gown of soft cream eoliene, and was assisted by Mrs. McIntosh, in a smart gown of black net, and Mrs. Ward in a tailored suit of blue serge. Ellis will be forced to oust Kohler, a veteran, to make the second base position. In case he falls a little shy of the mark he will be farmed out somewhere, so that Manager Smith can keep a close watch on him.

All Pittsburg race track precedents were shattered when Jay Joffe, a trotting horse owned by Benjamin Bowers, trotted home in a mile heat and won a race in 2 minutes 16 seconds. The remarkable feature of Jay Joffe's performance was that six months ago he lay prostrate on the track with a broken neck. At that time he was not shot, as he was not thought to be suffering because of paralysis. The horse, however, began to mend and has gradually grown better until he was today entered in a race.

Freddie Welsh wired Milton T. Clark the other day that he was already on his way to San Francisco for the purpose of meeting Matty Baldwin in a 20-round go some time this month. Welsh wants the promoter to secure training quarters for him, and get him a vegetarian cook. He has been a vegetarian ever since he found that Kid Broad got a lot of advertising out of it. He gets more ferocity out of a cabbage more science out of a young onion and more stamina out of a flock of asparagus than those beef-eaters can assimilate from a whole side of beef. Leave it to Freddie. He knows that all strength comes out of the ground, and he wants it firsthand.

ITALIAN'S WAGE BILL

Difficulty Between Joseph Carissi and His Man Stanio

Before Magistrate Carss this morning a wage problem which has arisen between Jospeh Carissi of the Grandview Hotel, and a countryman of his named Stainio was discussed this morning. It appears that Staninio was working for Carissi on some vague understanding that he should receive part or whole payment in board and lodging. Staninio requires wages in currency also, and the question was what agreement had been made. The Magistrate unravelled the tangle, and Stainio will receive wages.
