> There were no new developments during the night in the Lindbergh kidnapping case at Hopewell, N.J., which was again the all absorbing topic on all United States radio broadcasts.

Frequently during the night the following appeal authorized by Col. Lindbergh was read over the air on American broadcasting chains:

"Col. and Mrs. Lindbergh not only wish but hope that anyone knowing the whereabouts of the child will make every effort to communicate at once with them."

Throughout the night many stations of the National Broadcasting Co. and associated stations including KOMO of Seattle remained on the air in the hope of being able to aid in the quest for the child or to broadcast some news of developments to the anxious American public.

MOVE IS RUMORED

Reports Current That Post Office Will Vacate Present Location This Year

With the lease on the present post office building expiring in June of this year, there are persistent but unconfirmed reports current in the city that the local federal offices including the post office will be removed to another building. Among the buildings mentioned is the Federal Block where the post office was located before it was moved several years ago to the Dominion Block.

There is no confirmation available in official circles of any intention of the government to move the post office.
