ARE WEDDED HERE TODAY

Miss Mabel Ivarson Becomes Bride Of Jack Garrett at Ceremony in First Presbyterian Church

First Presbyterian Church was the scene of a very pretty wedding at 2 o'clock this afternoon when Miss Mabel Margaret Ivarson, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Adolf Ivarson, was united in marriage to John George Garrett, only son of Mr. and Mrs. John Garrett, of Atlin.

The bride entered the church to the strains of the Wedding March from Lohengrin played by Mrs. E. J. Smith. The ceremony was performed by Rev. W. D. Grant Hollingworth under a beautiful arch of flowers and tall palms on either side of the arch. The guest pews were marked with white streamers and small bouquets of sweet peas. Ushers were John McLeod, Alvin Johnson and Aubrey Ivarson, brother of the bride.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, looked charming in her model wedding gown of white Valenciennes lace and silk net over bridal satin with one puff sleeve and cape effect, wearing a large picture hat and muff with French hand made flowers. She carried a sheaf bouquet of lily-of-the-valley and Ophelia rosebuds, daintily tied with white satin ribbon. Her only jewelry worn was a platinum and diamond necklet and earrings.

Miss Molly Lawrence, as bridesmaid, looked very sweet in a gown of turquoise blue point d'esprit with sash of gold taffeta, wearing a small turban to match and carrying an arm bouquet of blue forget-me-nots and yellow rosebuds. Stanley Dalby supported the groom and, during the signing of the register, Mrs. H. N. Brocklesby sang "All Joy Be Thine," accompanied by Mrs. E. J. Smith.

The groom's gift to the bridesmaid was a turquoise and pearl necklet and earrings, and to the groomsmen a tortoise shell toilet set.

Following the ceremony a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents, 412 Eighth Avenue East. Masses of sweet peas were used in decorating the home. The bride and groom, standing under an arch of white wedding bells, sweet peas and roses, were assisted in receiving by the bride's mother in a chocolate brown lace dress with hat and accessories to match and corsage of roses. The groom's mother, in a black silk velvet and lace ensemble with corsage of purple violets, wore a large Gainsborough hat to match.

A buffet supper was served from table laid with a hand embroidered cloth and centered with a three-tier wedding cake. Tall pink tapers burned in pink and white sconces and smaller silver vases held flowers in pastel tones.

The toast to the bride was given by Rev. Grant Hollingworth and responded to by the groom. The many beautiful gifts on display were evidence of the popularity of the young couple.

Mr. and Mrs. Garrett will leave on the steamer Prince Rupert for a honeymoon trip to Vancouver, Victoria, Seattle and elsewhere in the south, the bride travelling in a Betty blue suit with a hat and purse to match and a blouse of white Irish lace. On their return to Prince Rupert they will reside on Sixth Avenue West. The groom is a popular member of the collector's office of the Court House. The bride has lived in Prince Rupert since early childhood.

Four Halibut Boats Ordered In From Hecate Straits By Patrol Steamer on Saturday

On the allegation that they had halibut gear spread after the close of legal fishing in Area No. 2, the local halibut boats Toodie, Capt. Peter Wold; Rose Spit, Capt. Axel Olsen; Morris H., Capt. Charles Giske, and Kaien, Capt. Ole Stegavig, were ordered in from the Two Peaks halibut banks in Hecate Straits where they were found on Saturday afternoon by the Fisheries Patrol steamer Malaspina, Captain Henderson.

The fishing season in Area No. 2 was closed at midnight last Friday by order of the International Fisheries Commission, the quota for the year in the area having been reached. The owners of the vessels claim that they were not actually fishing for halibut but were rounding off their final trips of the season in Area No. 2 by fishing for black cod.

It was uncertain this morning as to whether prosecutions would be actually launched by the authorities to whom the four boats all reported over the week-end.
