Guide to Correspondents

The Daily News welcomes correspondence on live topics of the day or any other subject of public interest, but letters must be brief and to the point. The long-winded correspondent has no place in modern journalism.

Every letter must be signed by the writer, not necessarily for publication but as a matter of good faith and courtesy. All unsigned documents go to the waste paper basket. Letters of a caustic character must have the signature appended for publication.

Letter should be written on one side of the paper only. Correspondents must avoid personalities and the language should be such as would be allowed in the ordinary rules of debate.

NEW BOOKS ARE NEEDED

Library Board Considering Ways And Means of Raising Money For Purchases

The question of raising money for the purchase of books for the Public Library was discussed again Tuesday night by members of the library board but it was decided to defer any action until after the New Year. It was reported that the Tox H bridge drive to be held in the Moose Hall tonight was being well supported and a considerable sum was expected to be realized from that source for the juvenile section but this would not meet the general need. Something else would have to be done to raise money for new books in the general section. A proposal for a library sweepstake had been mentioned and was favored by some of the members. The librarian, Miss Cruikshank, reported a falling off in borrowings because of the lack of the newer books. During the month of November there were issued fiction, 4319 volumes; non-fiction, 698; juvenile, 1113, and duplicate pay, 51. Some new books for the duplicate pay section will be arriving in a few days. The average daily borrowings was 2943. The number of borrowers now registered is 3761. Fifty-six new books were placed in the shelves during the month of the C.N.R. Yet some of these employees were not supporting the people whose support they were seeking. It is a matter of take and give. Loyalty is like a double-edged sword. It works both ways or at least it should. The landlord is the taxpayer of the city. The business man who is not a landlord is a tenant. He pays his rent and from the rent the taxes are paid out of which teacher's salary is paid and this teacher may be teaching the salaried man's boy or daughter. When a depression hits a community, the salaries are usually cut. Sometimes men and women lose their positions. One of the causes of depression is the lack of money circulating in a community. On the other hand, if there is more money circulating, everybody will prosper. Salaries will be increased and more jobs found. Knowing this condition exists, we, the members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, sponsor this idea so that we might create a spirit of understanding among our citizens. We trust that the above will be accepted as a response to your challenge. Yours for loyalty to Prince Rupert Junior Chamber of Commerce. Advertise in the Daily News
