

Palpitation of the Heart Nerves Bad - Could Not Sleep

Mrs. Fred Bingham, Swift Current, Sask., writes:-"I was bothered with pulpitation of the heart, and my nerves were so bad I could not sleep.

I was getting desperate and confided my trouble to a friend who recommended me to use Milburn's Heart and Nerve Pills. I purchased a box and got such relief I would gladly recommend them to all who are troubled as I was."

REPLY TO MR. BERNARDSON

Editor, Daily News:-

If Mr. Bernardson wishes to make a detailed study of "The Corporative State" he can get the book of Oswald Mosley on Fascism which very informative. It is the official publication of the founder of The British Union of Fascists. The book's title is Greater Britain, the address is 1. Great George Street, Westminster, London, England, price 2s. 6d.

The book quoted by Mr. Bernardson, "Mussolini, the Wild Man of Europe" is one of 2,000 publications on the subject of Fascism all over the world. Some time ago Lloyd George said that Mussolini was one of the only two men that really knew what was going on in the world. I presume that, if the author was to rewrite the book today, he would write about the "Wise Man of MOUNT OLDFIELD ROAD COM-

The proposal is being advanced by the committee that garbage at present being disposed of far out on the Skeena Highway near the city limits could be profitably used as a foundation for the city's section of the Mount Oldfield road. Beyond the first switchback, the proposed trail or road would run on government property and the construction would be carried out by the provincial government. It is estimated that from the clearing of the right-of-way for the Mount Oldfield road some 5000 TOMATOES-Nabob cords of cerdwood would become easily available.
