Queen Charlotte Islands Shingles To Be Used on New Smithers Hospital

The Hyde Transfer Company has secured the order to supply Queen Charlotte Islands shingles for the roof of the new Smithers Catholic Hospital which is in course of erection. The number required it is estimated will be about 100,000, a contract that will keep the mill at Massett busy for some weeks and provide employment in handling both there and here.

Tony Budinich sailed last night on the Prince Rupert for a holiday trip to Vancouver.

Thomas Trotier returned to the city on the Prince Rupert last evening after making the round trip to Stewart.

Mrs. John Dahlberg and granddaughter, Irene, left at the end of the week for a visit to Port Essington Hot Springs. Mrs. Dahlberg had a severe attack of rheumatism recently.

LAST CHANCE TO GET ON LIST OF VOTERS THIS AFTERNOON

The last chance any person has of getting on the voters' list is to apply in person at the Government Agent's office at the Court House, during business hours today.

Those who registered in the ordinary way prior to August 18 were included in the Court of Revision proceedings today. Any registering in the ordinary way since that time should also appear in person as indicated or they will not be able to vote at the coming provincial election.

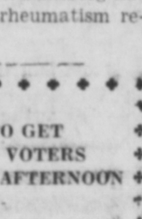
Again We Hear From The Hills



Again there comes a story from the mines about how good Pacific Milk is at the camps. It is "great food," these were the words used. And, "Recently at a meal served was a dessert with whipped cream which so impressed the guests they asked for the chef who was good enough to say the credit was due to Pacific Milk—a B. C. product."
