Presumes Death Of Man Who Was Fishing in River

VANCOUVER, Feb. 21:—Mr. Justice Fisher has taken under advisement a petition of Mrs. Edna Bassuk of Boston Bar for an order presuming the death of her husband.

On her behalf E. A. Lucas submitted evidence in Supreme Court that Bassuk was last seen fishing from a projecting railway tie; that the timber was later found broken from dry rot, and the man's dig net was recovered from the river.

His Lordship granted the application; but consented to reopen the matter at the request of Christopher Morrison, who announced that he appeared as amicus of the court.

Further explanation was that Mr. Morrison's client, Globe Indemnity Co. of Canada, has been cited defendant by Mrs. Bassuk to an action to recover $1150 accident insurance on Bassuk's life. The only other asset left by Bassuk was $115 in the bank.

Anglican Church Disapproves of Huge Salaries

VICTORIA, Feb. 21: — Formal disapproval of maintenance of the boom time salaries paid general secretaries of three Anglican Church organizations was registered by the Synod of the Diocese of British Columbia at its opening session here.

Resolutions of protest were adopted unanimously, on motion of Lindley Crease, K.C., seconded by N. S. Fraser, the motion being presented as independent of strong letters of censure which Bishop Schofield reported he had sent east nearly a year ago.

The departments concerned are the General Board of Religious Education, the Missionary Society of the Canadian Church and the Council of Social Service.

Confidence, not suspicion, is the attitude of liberals.—Owen Young.
