New Fish Shop Opening Monday

Cash and Carry Business to be Carried on in Store on Second Street

There is a new cash and carry fish store opening in the city Monday. It will be located on Second street, just behind the liquor store where Jones' Meat Market was formerly.

The owner of the new business has his own fishing boat and will keep the shop supplied with his own product. He will handle practically all kinds of fish and will sell at real cash and carry prices.

Many Joining Gideon Band

The recently organized club of the Baptist Sunday School known as "Gideon's Band" held their regular meeting Thursday evening in the Church Parlors.

Twelve new members were initiated after which all entered enthusiastically in the game which followed.

The members are all looking forward to their next meeting which will take the form of a bean supper.

IN SYMPATHY WITH STRIKE

Meeting Held Last Night to Discuss Ways and Means of Assisting Anyox Men

A special meeting to discuss ways and means of assisting the men on strike at Anyox was held last night in the C.L.D.L. Hall, some 300 being present. Comrade J. Dunn occupied the chair. Several speakers took the floor. Conditions at the mine came in for very frank criticism, and the management were described as something out of the pages of "The Jungle," having the handling of the men down to a fine point of scientific cruelty. It was really the officials of the mine who, by imposing impossible living conditions on the workers, were responsible for bringing about this strike. The workers were merely amassing wealth for absentee shareholders with no profit to them, the workers.

They were now confronted with the spectacle of some three dozen policemen being maintained at an expense of $300 or $400 a day in order to intimidate them on behalf of an American Corporation which was of absolutely no value to the country or the community. They had drawn millions of dollars out of the property, while the workers had nothing to show for the last twenty years, but crippled and ruined health, and a well-filled grave yard, the greater majority of the ages of the headstones being men under 40. Practically all the married men at Anyox were destitute now and it was sheer desperation which had called the strike, it being clear that there was no use in working for nothing, and if the Company did close down it would be no loss to the workers. The principle which is now involved is the standard of living, and it is no argument that in times like these when work is scarce the worker should be forced to accept lowered living conditions.

A committee was appointed who will consider ways and means of circularising the various labor organizations in the city to assist in financing the strikers, and the secretary was instructed to write to the workers at Anyox congratulating them on the stand they took, and they could depend on every possible assistance from the unemployed and workers in Prince Rupert.

It was announced that the ex-secretary of the unemployed, T. W. Murphy, was to be taken away on the train at 9:30 for deportation and the meeting adjourned. Murphy arrived under escort a few minutes before the train was due to leave and received a rousing send off the train leaving to the strains of "The Red Flag." He carries with him the best wishes of the unemployed in his new field.

The meeting was called by the various organizations connected with the Workers Unity League.

The Fish which made Prince Rupert Famous
"Rupert Brand" SMOKED BLACK COD
Prepared Daily By
Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co., Ltd.
PRINCE RUPERT, B.C.

"I have tried other brands but have never had such truly wonderful results from cooking as with Nestlé's Evaporated Milk. Why! The whole family have put their faith in it . . . and I am using it in all my cooking and baking. Nestlé's seems to improve my recipes and I can always depend on having excellent results when I use this inexpensive milk."

White Sauce
(THIN)

1 tablespoon butter
1 tablespoon flour
½ teaspoon salt
Few grains pepper if desired
1 cup boiling water
1 cup Nestlé's Evaporated Milk

Melt butter. Blend in flour, salt and pepper, if desired, and, when smooth and bubbling, add the boiling water gradually. Stirring constantly, boil until mixture begins to thicken, then add Nestlé's Evaporated Milk and continue cooking over hot water for 5 minutes longer. Yield: 1¾ cups.

To make
MEDIUM WHITE SAUCE
Increase butter to 1½ tablespoons and flour to 2 tablespoons.

Perfect Smoothness

—HOW IT AIDS GOOD COOKING

Here is a little secret that you may not have discovered for yourself. When you are making up one of those "family favorites" of yours for cream soup or custard sauce — try using Nestlé's Evaporated Milk. You will be amazed at the added "smoothness"—the rich creaminess that this concentrated pure cows' milk gives to your soups, sauces and fillings.

You will notice, too, that they have a richer colouring when Nestlé's Evaporated Milk is used. And it is so economical! One reason for this is an interesting fact about Nestlé's Evaporated Milk which you may not know.

The butterfat particles in it are so finely divided that it gives to foods a rich flavour without the addition of cream or butter. And, by the way, this same breaking up of the fat globules causes them to become perfectly blended with the rest of the milk, which brings you that dependable smooth creaminess that will make Nestlé's Evaporated Milk your fast friend.

Did it ever occur to you that a large part of the milk your family needs and should have every day can be eaten? This fact is of great nutritional importance—for milk drinking is sometimes not popular, especially with children—and in any case, quite often has its limits.

Solve this problem of required nutrition with delicious custards, rich creamy soups, and a variety of vegetable, fish and meat dishes served with cream sauce made with Nestlé's Evaporated Milk. This will give you double or more of the milk content otherwise included—and is a sure way of getting milk into food, and getting your family to eat more milk.

Just try the recipe given across the page. Follow carefully the simple cooking directions and you will achieve perfect smoothness.
