FEARS FOR VERIGIN'S LIFE WHEN HE ARRIVES IN RUSSIA

Fears Expressed That Peter Verigin Might Be Executed in Russia

Heads of Organization Arrive in Halifax in Time to See Their Chief Before He Sails on Montcalm Tonight

HALIFAX, N.S., Feb. 4:—A big red monoplane dropped down today on the snow-streaked turf of the Halifax airport and a race was won. Peter Makaroff, J. P. Shukin and H. F. Reibin had reached this city in time to see Peter Verigin before the Doukhobor chieftain sails for Russia as a deportee from Canada on the ss. Montcalm tonight.

They left Boston this morning. Shukin having come from Brilliant, B.C. by plane and Makaroff and Reibin from Winnipeg. The parties DIFFICULTY joined at Boston.

Interviewed at St. John both Reibin and Makaroff expressed the fear that Veregin would be execuated on his return to Russia although the Engineers and Firemen on Cana-Canadian authorities have received advice from the Soviet that he was a free man when he left and would be a free man when he returned.

Should the trip to Russia lead to death, Veregin would be succeeded by his son, Peter Verigin III, aged 25, said Reibin, Reibin thought it likely the destinies of the Doukhobors in Canada would be guided from Russia for some years to come.
