IN TODAY'S POLICE COURT A Number of Cases up for Attention. Several Remands. Indian Drunks, Stowaway Case, and Careless Blasts.

A number of cases occupied the attention of Magistrate Cars in the police court this morning. Jeannie Dinster, an Indian woman from Port Simpson was fined $8 and costs for having been drunk yesterday. The man who supplied her with the liquor has unfortunately managed to skip out by the way. The woman was ordered to skip herself back to Simpson, and skip lively too. Nick Perich, one of the strikers who was tried at Victoria and was acquitted, was up this morning for careless blasting some time ago near the Continental Trust Building. He was warned.

OFFER PRIZES FOR DISPLAY

Dominion Day Decoration Committee Prepares for Bright City. Citizens Ready to Excel Themselves.

Prizes are offered by the Dominion Day Committee for the best decorated residence, and the best decorated place of business on Dominion Day in Prince Rupert. For the best decorated residence a prize of $10 is offered, and for the best decorated place of business a prize of $15. Not so much the value of the prize as the attraction to live citizens of having the credit of making the best display in the city on Dominion Day is the idea of the Decoration Committee in offering these prizes. Already a number of citizens are making preparations to arrange a brilliant display for Dominion Day, and the reputation of Prince Rupert in the past is sure to be well upheld. As judges of the decorations Messrs. W. N. Lailey, A. Ward, and Morte H. Craig have been appointed. Try the special lunch at the right price at the Royal Hotel Cafe.

ADVENTUROUS LITTLE MAIDS

Gasoline Schooners Fish Maid, and Old Maid Put out to Sea Again after Their Thrilling Experiences.

Last night the plucky little gasoline fishing schooners Fishmaid and Old Maid put out of harbor again to make for the fishing grounds. They may not visit the scene of their recent thrilling adventures, but are ready for active work all the same. The Fish Maid which actually capsized, and was abandoned for lost is little the worse for her mauling by the seas, and the Old Maid which got off lighter is as spry as ever.
