CHRISTMAS PRESENTS

People everywhere are considering the question of Christmas presents. One of the most welcome presents a former Prince Rupert resident could get would be a subscription to the Daily News.

In order to co-operate with our readers who wish to keep alive in the minds of their friends the activities of the people of the Prince Rupert district, we are making a special half-rate for people living outside the district, if sent by a person who is already a subscriber to the paper.

Send in $1.50 with the name of the person to whom you wish to donate the paper and we see that they get it by mail for one year.

Gives Up $100,000 a Year Pension

Here is Albert H. Wiggin, former chairman of the Chase National Bank of New York, who has asked the institution to discontinue his $100,000 annual retirement salary because of public criticism. Wiggin's recent income figures are shown above.

Guide to Correspondents

The Daily News welcomes correspondence on live topics of the day or any other subject of public interest, but letters must be brief and to the point. The long-winded correspondent has no place in modern journalism.

Every letter must be signed by the writer, not necessarily for publication but as a matter of good faith and courtesy. All unsigned documents go to the waste paper basket. Letters of a caustic character must have the signature appended for publication.

Letter should be written on one side of the paper only. Correspondents must avoid personalities and the language should be such as would be allowed in the ordinary rules of decorum.
