CORONATION HOLIDAY ENJOYED IN RUPERT

Loyal and Lively Young People Found Fun on the Launches and at the Beach—Patriotic Concert

Coronation Day in Prince Rupert was marked by no particular demonstration, but a general holiday was observed, and the day will be a memorable one for the host of young people who went on the numerous and church other picnic excursions planned. The weather was excellent.

Very large parties were conducted by launch over to Metlakatla under the auspices of the Baptist Church Brotherhood which has been so successfully organized by Rev. W. H. McLeod. The Presbyterians had a great time on the fine beach specially discovered for them by their energetic pastor Rev. F. W. Kerr, and the river steamer Inlander carried big parties of picnickers across the harbor.

Members of the Overseas Club made a special effort to mark the day as one of rejoicing, and the club held a most successful concert in the evening. A reception was also arranged in honor of the occasion across at the Digby Island Marine Station Works now in progress, and a number of persons enjoyed themselves there.

Private picnic parties went by launch to every conceivable beauty spot within a ten mile radius of Rupert, and with boating on the harbor, the less adventurous had a great good time.

Bunting fluttered from the Government flagstaff, and all the public buildings flew the Union Jack. An epidemic of red, white and blue ribbon gave the loyal feminine population (and some of the males, too) a festive and patriotic appearance. At night the boys had bonfires, not too big, of course, for ours is still a city of wooden buildings, and altogether the Coronation of King George Fifth will be remembered by Young Prince Rupert whose Coronation is still to come.

HOMER WOOD FACES CHARGE

The information charges him with attempted murder of Alex Mathieson, and attempted suicide. Witnesses giving evidence this morning were C. Gilbert Thorne who told of the purchase of the revolver by the accused from the Prince Rupert Hardware Store. Ralph Fisher, engineer at the Cold Storage, told how he saw accused with the gun before the shooting and at the time, and Chief Vickers who gave evidence in relation to the letter written by accused to his wife, and other matters. The case was adjourned till this afternoon. The City Solicitor is conducting the case for the prosecution at present, and L. W. Patmore appears for Woods.

patrick that the adverse report sent in by Alderman Newton as chairman of the investigation committee, was by no means unanimously approved by the members of that committee. The other members refrained from signing it. Alderman Kerr said they did not know what to do about it and decided to let it go to council and be fought out. Alderman Douglas agreed only with the idea of retrenchment expressed in it. Alderman Newton condemned the department, and Alderman Morrissey supported him with the evident desire to have Mr. Lucas tried out as City Engineer.

Strong Opinions Expressed
Very strong opinions were expressed by Alderman Smith, and Alderman Hilditch of the way Colonel Davis had been attacked in Alderman Newton's report. Alderman Smith described the charges made as most unjust, and the fact that the report had been published in Alderman Newton's paper is considered a serious aggravation of the injustice.

"That unjust report," said Alderman Hilditch, "has gone through the medium of Alderman Newton's paper broadcast into places where the people don't know Alderman Newton as we know him, where the allegations made will have more weight than citizens of Prince Rupert will give them and will accordingly do Colonel Davis' reputation harm most unjustly."

This view was held also very strongly by Alderman Smith, who with twenty-seven years of experience on construction work himself, was ready to say confidently that Colonel Davis' work was good, and that Alderman Newton's attacks on him were misguided and unfair.

Blunderingly Sincere
Alderman Hilditch holds the opinion that Alderman Newton is sincere but that he simply does not know the first thing about the work of the department he attempted to reform. Certainly there was a distinct feeling of regret amongst the council that Alderman Newton should take up the position he did on Wednesday night. For his own part Alderman Newton expressed himself in these words addressed to the Mayor:

"I retire from the board with the kindest feelings to yourself, and every member of this board, and only hope that my absence from the chamber may enable you to carry on your business without my interference."

Social Note

Mrs. G. R. Naden entertained pleasantly at Bridge on Wednesday evening. The guests included Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Bennett, Miss Brown, Miss Martin, Miss Elliot, Miss Johnstone, Mr. Peck, Mr. Wallace, Mr. Clancy, and Mr. Gamble.

HOT SHOT FROM COUNCIL CHAMBER of Colonel Davis is just."—Alderman Smith.

Doubting Douglas

"Alderman Douglas—Alderman Hilditch showed his own want of confidence in the engineering department when he suggested that the streets committee should go and examine the work."

Alderman Hilditch—"Pooh, I only wanted to give the committee something to do."

Great Pennyworth

"If Alderman Morrissey ever got it into his head that $2000 was to build all the retaining walls in this city, he has no right to be on this council."—Alderman Hilditch.

Morrissey's Big Bone

"Alderman Morrissey's big bone of contention seems to be that he is annoyed that the retaining walls are being built at $1.40 a yard instead of $5 by contractors."—Alderman Hilditch.

Not in Seattle

"You must have a competent waterworks engineer on the spot to supervise the waterworks."—Alderman Smith.

Pro Bono Publico

"It may be unfair to militate against the interests of Colonel Davis, but it is very fair of course, to militate against the interests of the people."—Alderman Newton.

Good Man

"It is to the interests of the people of Prince Rupert to retain Colonel Davis."—Alderman Smith.

Morrissey's Man

"The recommendation of the committee imposing responsibility on Mr. Lucas is a matter of the greatest pride to me."—Alderman Morrissey.

Hilditch's Challenge

Alderman Hilditch—"I will go right before the people of Prince Rupert tomorrow. We will both resign, and see whom the people think is doing most for the people's interests."

Alderman Newton—"I am willing. You can have my resignation after this is over."

Newton Feels Burked

"For a considerable time there has been a disposition to Burke my quiet attempts to effect remedies of matters for which the old council was blamed, and which I believe we were sent into office to endeavor to change."—Alderman Newton.

Throws up Sponge

"My influence has been tried in a quiet way, and I have simply failed to effect these alterations. If my influence has done no good purpose, I have no desire to waste my time at this board. I have plenty of business of my own to take up my time."—Alderman Newton.

From A to Zee

"From first to last there has been a disposition shown at this board to detract from my efforts."—Alderman Newton.

Newton on Czar

"I did not come into this council to try to further my own interests, nor to become a dictator, nor for the purpose of agreeing with everything done at this board."—Alderman Newton.

Wash His Hands of It

"I can see from tonight's doings that I might just as well have spared myself the effort to effect improvements."—Alderman Newton.

Newton's Sincerity

"The only thing I ever gave Alderman Newton credit for is his sincerity."—Alderman Hilditch.

How Hilditch Sees It

"I believe we have got our engineering department and public works department in as efficient a stage as we can get ever them. I would far rather resign now and get out of it than have these continual bickerings which are caused by Alderman Newton and Alderman Douglas and Morrissey."—Alderman Hilditch.

Discovered by Douglas

"Since I came into this council I have got busy and talked to the City Engineer. Everything I got from him was just the same as I got from Alderman Hilditch. It is a frame-up from start to finish. Alderman Hilditch has the City Engineer under his thumb."—Alderman Douglas. (Greeted with loud applause and laughter.)

Hand and Glove

"Alderman Hilditch is doing the whole thing and the City Engineer is backing him up. They are just working together hand and glove."—Alderman Douglas.

What Silent?

"I have sat at this board from the beginning of this year to the present time as a silent spectator."—Alderman Newton.

Council Acrobatics

"Alderman Hilditch has turned a complete somersault, and instead of his former kicking, he becomes champion of the whole system."—Alderman Newton.

A Little Abuse

"I want to bring this head to an intelligent issue."—Alderman Newton.

Newton Sick of It

"In view of Alderman Hilditch's challenge, I beg to tender my resignation as member of the City Council of Prince Rupert, not because I want to go before the people again, but because I am sick of the whole business."—Alderman Newton.

City's Needs Neglected

"I believe that the city's interests are being absolutely neglected. There are combinations formed at this council to Burke an honest effort made to remedy existing evils."—Alderman Newton.
