ANYTHING BUT SATISFACTORY

The outcome of the action of the Canadian National Steamship Company in taking their vessel, the Prince Rupert, to Vancouver to overhaul after all arrangements for the work had been made at the local dry dock, is most unsatisfactory. It means that a great many men who are sadly needing it are unable to get a few days' work and the city and dry dock both suffer.

It is satisfactory to know, however, just where to place the blame. We have let the company know that we are a factor to be reckoned with, both today and in the future. We have to thank Hon. R. J. Manion, Hon. H. H. Stevens and Olof Hanson for their help in Ottawa and Mayor Stephens for his prompt action here.

A BARREN SESSION

The session of the Legislature just ended has been barren of any attempt to seriously cope with the problems that confront the province. Eighty measures have been passed but they have nearly all been amendments to laws at present on the statute books. It seems unnecessary to comment on the situation, for everyone realizes the incompetency of the government about to retire.

The provincial Conservative executive has given Premier Tolmie two weeks in which to let it know what action he now proposes. He has promised union government. He also promised to call the Conservatives of the province together in convention but that has been countermanded by the Conservative association. Several Conservatives are in open rebellion and others, it is known, are ready to rebel if some steps are not taken soon to clarify the situation.

EASTERN PHILOSOPHY

That which is sold cheaply is produced cheaply or at great sacrifice; therefore haggle not at the bazaars but pay unto him the fair reward for his goods or his labors that all might live and let others live.

Let a man be neither profiteer nor niggard but act with justness to his neighbors and himself.

And out of the blackness of the land there grew a brotherhood because of this decree, and the land prospered again.

"Americans Come To Me".

George Bernard Shaw, whose pungent wit has enlivened the world cruise of the Canadian Pacific liner "Empress of Britain" when he arrived at San Francisco recently, denied he had ever said he would never visit America.

"What I said," the Irish dramatist remarked, "was there was no need for me to visit America, as all interesting Americans come to see me."

That this was true is proved by the picture, for here in the Mayfair lounge of the 42,500 ton liner, he is seen with Mayor Angelo Rossi, who not only went to Shaw, but dressed himself in his cutaway and wore a carnation.

WILL CITY SURRENDER?

Editor, Daily News:

Are we going to sit quiet and see the city council surrender our city to the bondholders without a protest? The last members of the council were elected on a "Save your home, No salaries for aldermen, no commissioner" platform and, to let a commissioner walk in now without a protest, seems a flagrant breach of faith. I cannot see the reason for it. The council is paying its way without borrowing from the bank—a feat never accomplished before by any council. They will have ample taxes coming in in a few months and, if they cannot pay 100 cents on the dollar off principal of bonds, what are the odds? What big undertakings are doing so anyway? If they can continue to pay interest until conditions right themselves, they will be good and lucky and if they will endeavor to arrange to do this, there is no doubt about the outcome. The government will not appoint a commissioner.

Alderman Casey should not be allowed to lead the council in this matter. There are others who should have opinions on it. We might consider ourselves hard hit now but, with a commissioner, we will surely smart. It is to be sincerely hoped that some alderman has enough backbone to fight such an injustice to the citizens.

Taken as a whole, the actions of the council are approved by a majority of the citizens and there is absolutely no doubt but that they can pull the city through without disgrace if they wish to put their shoulders to the wheel as they gave us to understand they would do at the last election. It will mean some spade work but it can be done. The expense of a commissioner will mean the addition of two or three mills on our taxes.

PLEBIAN.

GARNER'S REPLY

Editor, Daily News—

Mr. Bassano-Bert's letter in answer to my letter regarding the German election seems to me to be foolish. He states the election is purely historical and to pick details is answering no purpose. He is right on that point.

To deal with an effect we must find out the cause. I say the cause of the Hitler victory was the oppressive methods at the point of the gun, which is might but not right.

Another point where he is wrong is when he says "just like Russia where they have Communism." In Russia they have state capitalism and are working toward Communism.

He quotes Lincoln Steffens in saying that Fascism is spreading. Historians, in annihilating the present social order with their knowledge of past history, show that Capitalism in their last struggle against labor to hold their power will unite their forces against labor and try to establish an Oligarchy. That means a government in which the supreme power is in the hands of a few. They like to call it Fascism.

If the German workers, or I should say their leaders, could have such differences and adopted methods and tactics for the conditions in Germany, the history there might have been different. The conditions in the highly developed industrial countries are different from the conditions that existed in Russia up to 1917.

I ask again, Mr. Editor, if Mr. Bassano-Bert would tell us when he is going to debate the question of fascism. Then he would have the opportunity of going into historical facts past and present. Interesting history is the rise and fall of the Roman Empire.

SPORT CHAT

The New York State Athletic Commission has taken steps to prevent any possibility of war between the rival boxing promoters, Madison Square Gardens and Jack Dempsey, this summer in awarding the dates for the outdoor ring season.

The commission, refused to reconsider its action granting Dempsey Thursday, June 1, the date he had asked, for the Schmeling-Baer heavyweight bout which is to take place in one of the New York baseball parks. The Garden, however, was given every other Thursday night during the summer while Dempsey was given the Wednesday spot after June 1.

The Garden so far has not picked a definite date for its heavyweight attraction. Jack Sharkey's title defense against Prim Carnera.
