Christmas

Christmas is a jolly time
When old friends like to meet
To share their Christmas cake and wine
And all good things to eat.

There's a Christmas tree by the open grate
Laden with gifts of cheer
And a postman bringing to the gate
Greetings from far and near.

And windows trimmed with pretty wreaths
Midst holly and mistletoe—
An dall pecause a Prince of Peace
Was born long, long ago.

—H. ROGERS.

SILVER PRICE NOT SHOWING STRENGTH AS WAS EXPECTED

NEW YORK, Dec. 23: (CP)—So far at least, the order made on Thursday by President Franklin D. Roosevelt relating to the coinage of silver has not had the expected result in bolstering up the price of the white metal. Yesterday the price advanced to 44¼c, which was one cent ahead of Thursday, but today it fell back to 43¾c. Copper today sold at 8¼c per pound, unchanged from Friday.

CHRISTMAS WISHES FROM QUEEN CHARLOTTES

Editor, Daily News:—

Once more we, the Queen Charlotte Islands, wish our friends of the north a Merry Christmas and a Happy and Prosperous New Year.

We believe that with T. D. Pattullo at the head of our new government, we will make the grade and that we have now rounded that famous corner. As loyal citizens of Canada it is up to all of us to draw in our belts and co-operate with the premier in once more putting B.C. on its feet. We have the resources so it can be done.

We also take this opportunity of thanking you, Mr. Editor, for the many years you and your valuable paper have worked for the interests of the Queen Charlotte Islanders and we wish you and your staff every success and happiness during the coming year.

KNOCKS OUT LOCAL BOY

Jack McEvoy of Vancouver Defeats Billy Bagshaw in Second Round—Good Card

Although the main event was a disappointment, Billy Bagshaw being hopelessly outclassed by Jack McEvoy of Vancouver in the second round in which stanza he lost by a knockout after having opened out fairly well in the first, the boxing card put on by the Moose Lodge last night was otherwise an interesting one and full of lively action.

It was early in the second round that McEvoy opened out hard on the local boy and, after dazing him with hard rights and lefts, sent him to the canvass with a clip to the chin. Gamely, Billy came up at the ten count, only to be sent down promptly again for the full count.

The semi-final was a good bout with Frank Gomez taking the decision in four two-minute rounds from Dan Healy. The boys mixed it freely and action was plentiful.

The four-round bout between Darrow Gomez and Johnny McLeod was also well fought with the latter taking the call on his boxing ability and cleverness.

Many considered the scheduled four-round go between Chuck Hickey and Ted Allen as the piece de resistance of the evening. After they had battled hard, Hickey won out in the third on a technical knock-out.

The curtain raiser consisted of three good exhibition rounds between Battling Johnny O'Neill and George Carlyle.

Chairman for the card was T. O. Morgan and Gillis Royer was announcer. Brick Skinner was referee and Bert Morgan and Jack Preece judges. G. W. Rudderham was timekeeper.

FIRE AT JUNEAU

Ten Thousand Dollars Damage By Flames in Alaska Capital

JUNEAU, Dec. 23: (CP)—Zero weather prevailed yesterday as firemen fought flames which nearly destroyed four houses with estimated $10,000 damage.

BIG STORM NOW ENDED

Weather Conditions in South Better And Floods Over—Cold Snap On Prairies

VANCOUVER, Dec. 23: (CP)—Weather conditions on the Lower Mainland and Vancouver Island were almost back to normal Friday. The flood situation in the vicinity of Vancouver and in the Fraser River delta country was much improved and further recurrence appeared to be unlikely.

On Vancouver Island considerable damage was caused between Chemainus and Duncan, ninety trees in one section blowing down over telephone lines.

The early week storm was regarded as the worst in thirty years.

Falling temperature with rain or snow is predicted for the week-end here.

Cold On Prairies

CALGARY, Dec. 23:—A cold snap appeared today to have settled down over the prairies for Christmas, practically all points reporting temperatures of well below zero. Fourteen below zero with a high wind was recorded here this morning.

Prince George Situation

Latest reports from Prince George are to the effect that flood conditions in the lower part of the town have receded considerably during the past day or so after having assumed quite serious proportions during the early part of the week. Considerable ground in the low-lying neighborhood of the railway station, however, remains a veritable ice field owing to the flood waters having been frozen solid before they had a chance to run off after the Nechako River went down. To prevent thick ice forming on the railway tracks which were a foot under water it was necessary to keep an engine shuttling back and forth continually at Prince George while the flood, caused by ice jams in the river, was at its height.

For several days temperatures of far below zero have been recorded at Prince George.

Roadmaster Gunderson of the Canadian National Railways was among the residents of "The Cache," on the north side of the railway track, across from the town proper, who were trapped in their homes by the swiftly rising waters. He had to take to the roof of his house for safety and was held there for sixteen hours. By the time he was rescued his feet were frost-bitten.
