Police Boat Passed Simpson Without Calling in So All is Believed

According to a telephone message received by the provincial police, the police boat P. M. L. 8 Port Simpson during last three weeks to get supplies or pick up their Christmas mail, passed Port Simpson at 11:30 this morning enroute back to Prince Rupert without putting in there.

In view of the failure of the P. M. L. 8 to put in at Port Simpson, it is presumed that the officers on board found that no distress or hardship was being suffered by the Wales Island residents and that they had been merely unable to get across to Port Simpson of late owing to the bad weather.

The P. M. L. 8 should arrive back in Prince Rupert by mid-after-

All Japan Rejoices at Birth Of Man Child at Royal Palace; Will be 125th. Nikado One Day

TOKYO, Dec. 23: (CP)—An infant son who will, if he survives his father, the Emperor Hirohito, one day become the 125th. Mikado of Japan and carry on the succession of the oldest dynasty in the world, was born at 6:39 a.m. Saturday in the Imperial Palace. He is the first son of the Emperor and his wife, Empress Nagako, and the long-awaited Crown Prince of the Empire and heir to the Sun Goddess.

Nation-wide rejoicing from 100,000,000 loyal Japanese subjects greeted the tidings of the arrival of the Imperial princeling. The child had been expected between Christmas and the New Year and the nation had been praying for months that it would be a boy. He is the fifth child of Their Imperial Majesties, the first four having been girls.

Olof Hanson, M.P.

To the residents of Northern and Central British Columbia, I extend my sincere wishes for a happy Christmas.—Olof Hanson.
