Mrs. William Duff Is Laid at Rest

Funeral Service For Well Known Local Pioneer Woman Took Place Yesterday

Pioneer friends in goodly numbers as well as more recent acquaintances gathered at St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral yesterday afternoon to pay final tributes of respect and esteem to the memory of the late Mrs. William Duff, whose death had occurred earlier in the week. Very Rev. James B. Gibson, dean of the Cathedral, conducted the service and, in appropriate remarks, testified to the worth of deceased, referred to the regret that was felt at her passing and uttered words of comfort for the bereaved. A. J. Lancaster presided at the organ and hymns were "Lead, Kindly Light" and "We Shall Gather at the River."

Following the Cathedral service, interment was made in Fairview Cemetery. Pallbearers were J. L. McIntosh, Walter Thompson, E. W. Tucker, W. W. C. O'Neill, Robert Stuart and Neil Macdonald.

The B. C. Undertakers were in charge of funeral arrangements.

Pioneers

Gather round, ye pioneers,
Gather round the Christmas fires,
Tell your stories once again
Of hope, toil and keen desires.

Measure each his wondrous store
Of wisdom gleaned down through the years,
Dauntless faith urging you on,
Crushing out all doubts and fears.

Bang! Bang! Bang! the fight begins;
Rocks careening high o'er earth
Like ribbons flung, roads loomed forth,
Proclaiming a city's birth.

Our youth will carry onward
The work with its loss or gain,
We who gave our strength, our lives,
Know that we gave not in vain.

FINE PLAY FOR XMAS

Lavish Musical Picture "Gold Diggers of 1933" to Be Offered

"Gold Diggers of 1933," all-star, dramatic musical spectacle, is to be the special Christmas Day and Tuesday picture here at the Capitol Theatre. It is a fitting sequel to the popular picture "42nd Street." It is said to excel in beauty, in catchy tunes and "whistling" music, in comedy and in its story values.

The names of Warren William, Joan Blondell, Ruby Keeler (Mrs. Al Jolson), Dick Powell, Aline MacMahon, Guy Kibbee, Ginger Rogers and Ned Sparks head the cast.

It is an intensely human story of three gold digging show girls into whose capable hands the problem of finding an "angel" for the show that will give them employment and opportunity is entrusted. The tricks and trades behind many a Broadway success are disclosed in a whirlwind of exciting incident and amusing situations. The song writing scion of a proud family eventually involves both his severely proper older brother and the family lawyer in the intricacies of showmanship. Five popular songs are featured with lavish choruses.

A Christmas Message

The Christmas season is with us again and we take advantage of the opportunity to wish all our customers and friends a very

Merry Christmas and Prosperous New Year

Included among our friends are all those who are doing anything to advance the interests of Prince Rupert whether through an organization or by private effort.

While conditions here have not been just what we could wish, the prospect for improvement during the coming year is excellent so we can well enjoy the holiday season with confidence that by this time next year there will have been a great improvement.

Let us all keep happy and bend our energies to bring about a better state of affairs, submerging our petty differences for the common good.
