YOUTH IS ARRAIGNED

SAN JOSE, Dec. 23.—Anthony Cataldi, aged 18, who is alleged to have boasted openly of having taken part in the recent lynching here of Thomas Thurmond and Jack Holmes, kidnap-killers of Brooke Hart, has been arraigned here in connection with the crime. The youth, who is confident that he will be pardoned by Governor James Rolph jr. in the event of his being convicted, appeared to be quite unperturbed when facing the court.

Cataldi has been out on bail since his arrest. The trial has been adjourned until after the New Year pending further investigating of the lynching.

What Is He Worth!

Well, he's worth . . . the absurdity of the question makes you smile . . . You wouldn't part with him for any amount of money . . . He's too precious!

Remember, then, that his strength, his appearance, his success and happiness depend upon his health. And his health depends largely upon you.

Guide to Correspondents

The Daily News welcomes correspondence on live topics of the day or any other subject of public interest, but letters must be brief and to the point. The long-winded correspondent has no place in modern journalism.

Every letter must be signed by the writer, not necessarily for publication but as a matter of good faith and courtesy. All unsigned documents go to the waste paper basket. Letters of a caustic character must have the signature appended for publication.

Letter should be written on one side of the paper only. Correspondents mus' avoid personalities and the language should be such as would be allowed in the ordinary rules of
