GOLD ON ISLANDS

Is Still Absorbing Topic of Interest —To Inspect Prince Rupert Group

SKIDEGATE, Oct. 5—Gold and gold mining continues to be the major topic of interest on the Queen Charlotte Islands and prospectors and mining men continue their activity in the field while development operations continue on a number of promising properties.

J. Kison of Sandspit is reported to have made the discovery of a big body of gold-bearing ore at Copper Bay, Moresby Island. The new discovery joins one of the claims owned by Norman Fraser of Prince Rupert.

A. Johnson M.E., consulting engineer for the Hydah gold mine, and B. G. Hawkins, one of the directors of the Hydah Gold Mines Ltd., are expected to make an inspection very shortly of the company's holdings at Kootenay Harbor known as the Prince Rupert group. They will be accompanied by E. C. Stevens of Skidegate.

On the Prince Rupert group the Hydah Co. now has one tunnel in 235 feet on the Victoria vein, this having run in splendid ore all the way. Recently some very rich ore was encountered in the Meaford tunnel which is in 70 feet. Gold can be seen scatered through the white quartz.

Robert Scharffe's partners have brought in from Cumshewa some of the finest gold samples ever seen in these parts.

Norman Fraser of Prince Rupert has made a gold discovery three miles south of Copper Bay and has located three claims there.

Stewart Canadian Legion at Premier

Large Contingent Makes Journey And Innovation Proves Successful

STEWART, Oct. 5:—Members of the local branch, Canadian Legion, travelled to Premier in a body and held their regular semi-monthly meeting there, the library being placed at the Legion's disposal through the kindness of the company management. The local branch has been considering for a long time the advisability of holding an occasional business meeting at Premier where several members of the branch are located, and the results of the meeting held recently are such that the branch will certainly soon repeat the experiment.

Four new members were initiated and preliminary plans laid for the annual poppy campaign and for the winter's program of entertainments.

Before the Stewart contingent returned, refreshments were served by the Premier members. Transportation was provided by members of the organization.

Mrs. (Captain) Allan of the Salvation Army arrived on the Prince George yesterday from Vancouver to assist Lieut. Milley during the absence of Captain Coxson who is recuperating from her recent illness. Mrs. Allan is an active worker in the Citadel Corps of the Salvation Army, is a capable speaker and able musician. She will conduct meeting at the Citadel tonight.

WHIFFLETS

From the Waterfront

According to latest reports from the Skidegate Bar trolling grounds, the fishermen there, owing to very stormy weather, have not been able to do much fishing lately, although a fair run of cohoes is reported. Capt. Don Yelf, buying with his packer B. and Y. for the Canadian Fishing Co. of Butedale, is now on the grounds there and is paying 5c per pound for bright cohoes and 3½c for colored ones. Capt. Brandy Newell recently left Skidegate with the packer Bruce I with a load of 18,000 pounds for Butedale and is expected back there shortly.

Jim Bacon, chief factotum of the Bacon Fisheries in Prince Rupert, it is reported, will shortly make a trip to the Queen Charlotte Islands to spread the gospel of Liberalism prior to the coming provincial election. Jim, who bought fish on the Queen Charlotte Islands long before some of the rising young buyers were born, has a host of friends in those parts who will be delighted to see him again and who, doubtless, will do all in their power to insure that he is suitaby entertained.
