and in United States and Canada. He spent five years with the Central Alberta Dairy Producers Creamery at Alix, later owned and operated a very successful plant at Derwent, Alberta.

In reporting on the results of the first two weeks activities, Mr. Miller stated he was highly pleased with the support given by both local citizens and farmers. Cream shipments are being received from as far west as Fort Fraser and as far east as Dunster. The demand for pasteurized fluid milk has trebled, and there is a keen demand for local butter.

The installation of the creamery marks the opening of a new era in the progress of a permanent type of agriculture in this district and offers the local producer and consumer of dairy products an opportunity to co-operate in the common good.

"When I create a recipe," says MISS LILLIAN LOUGHTON, well-known Dietitian and Cookery Expert of the Canadian Magazine, "I want it to serve the young, inexperienced cook as well as the older and more skilled housewife. That's why my own baking recipes are planned for Magic, and why I recommend it for all recipes calling for baking powder."

Don't miss your chance to win a prize in Magic's great Mystery Cake Contests

OF COURSE, you'll want to try your skill naming this Magic Mystery Cake. Think what fun it would be to win that $250!

Miss Lillian Loughton is the creator of this month's recipe. She gives you a cake that's delightfully different. And her recipe is so simple even a brand-new cook can make it successfully.

Just read the recipe. Doesn't it sound fascinating? Surely you can think of a good name to fit it. Make it yourself before you name it, if you prefer—and be sure to follow Miss Loughton's advice—use Magic Baking Powder.

For Magic never varies. The last spoonful in the tin gives the same high leavening power as the first. No wonder the majority of cookery experts and teachers of cookery throughout Canada use Magic exclusively.

Enter this Magic Contest today. Read the rules. See how easy it is. Why shouldn't you be one of those 63 prize winners?

Here's Miss Loughton's Recipe. Can you name it?

1 cup butter
2 cups fine white sugar
3 cups pastry flour or
2¾ cups bread flour
3 teaspoons Magic Baking Powder
½ teaspoon salt
1 cup milk
1 cup finely chopped citron peel
2 cups chopped and blanched almonds
½ cup shredded cocoanut
5 egg whites

The texture and fine flavor of this typically English cake depend upon careful mixing. Cream the butter and sugar till light and fluffy. Sift flour once. Dust peel, nuts and cocoanut with one-half cup of flour; add Magic Baking Powder and salt to balance of the flour, sift together twice, then gradually add alternately with milk to the creamed butter and sugar; when thoroughly blended add peel, nuts and cocoanut. Lastly fold in the stiffly beaten whites. Turn into a well-greased loaf pan. Bake 1½ hours in 400° F. oven for the first 20 minutes, then gradually decrease heat.
