GOSSIP

Gossip, plain devil-tongued talking about other people is an outstanding social curse of our day, says the Rotarian. More homes are broken, more happiness ruined, more careers are downcast, more banks are closed by the careless repetition of guesses, rumors, scandals, half-truths, and untruths than by any other one cause.

Men used to repeat a bluff that only women gossiped. It would be foolish to pretend that today. Women know better. The worst of it is that gossip now assumes a cloak of respectability. True conversation has become povertystricken. We have become afraid to admit that we know anything. We speak nothings. We gossip.

Gossip does not reguire sustained mental effort. Gossip is not a product of mental processes, but only proves a vocal agility and a morbid attic. Gossip is chatter. Gossip | The Letter Box

Gossip proceeds from jealousy, grows heavy on guesses, thrives on hurried whispers, and waxes juicy on "I told you so's." Gossip deals in dirt.

Gossip is a leech. It sucks the lifeblood of happy human relationships.

Gossip lurks. In sunlight gossip would wither like mould. Gossip rattles the skeleton in the closet; does not tread the open street.

Gossip is a coward. Confronted by truth, it slinks away like any masquerading cur.

Gossip is a traitor. It sticks like pitch and tar to the one who traffics in it. Can a community go forward whose members seek first of "Leviathan" and of "Liberty and the latest scandal? Have men and women who bear tales any leadership for youth?

Gossip has this one saving weakness; it has no use for you if you have good use for your time. Gossip always shuns the poor; and tires quickly of inattention.

Most reforms call for collective action. Many call for money. The conviction of gossip is an individual matter. One man or one woman can be an executioner of gossip. It right. In last summer's course there takes people to create gossip; people can stop it by the simple process of starvation.

Any community which substitutes true neighborliness for gossip, sincere helpfulness and friendship for scandalmonging is on a good, smooth road to happiness and success.

Youngster Is Hero

SAVES BROTHER AN SISTER FROM BLAZE

Milo MacKenzie, 4, son of Capt. G. MacKenzie, Canadian war aviator, who was the hero when fire periled the lives of his sister, Flora Maybelle, 2, and his baby b other, Donald, 10 months old, is shown here with the children he rescued and his mother, Milo, who dragged the two children from the blazing home in Denver, Col., on a blanket when the house caught fire in the absence of his mother, is shown at the left. Mrs. MacKenzie is holding the younger children.

ANSWER TO OBSERVATIONS OF MR. C. D. CEARKE

Editor, Daily News:-

To classify as "spurious" the statement of Thomas Hobbes on Rome and Christianity, quoted by me in the final article on Fascism; is to dispute the authority of a great English philosopher, an eminent classical scholar, the translator of Thucydides and Homer, the author Necessity." This responsibility I leave entirely to Mr. C. D. Clarke.

Well, yes, my facts about Fascism can be studied in the new university of Perugia, established by Mussolini to facilitate foreigners who flock there in an ever-increasing number every year to study corporative

No. Mussolini and Marconi are not in the same class. Senator Guglielmo Marconi, born and educated at Bologna, is the wizard of science that we all know.
