Appointment Is Confirmed

Difference of Opinion Developed Over Relief Inspector and Need For Such a Man

Discussing the appointment of P. W. Anderson as relief inspector at the meeting of the city council last night, Mayor Stephens stated that progress already made indicated the need of such an appointment. He felt sure when the report was received that the action of the council in making the appointment would be fully justified.

Some objection was taken to the appointment. Alderman Casey said a list of the men and the information concerning them had been tabulated and anyone could inform himself in regard to the position. He did not see the use of a relief officer. The work could be done at less cost without him.

Alderman Pillsbury said he understood the position was not to be a permanent one. He asked how long the Mayor thought it might be neeessary to have such a man.

Mayor Stephens replied "As long as he is gaining valuable information. It is not to be a permanent appointment."

Alderman Rochester, Ruderham Basso-Bert and Black also took part in the discussion.
