IRISH GOVERNMENT IS RE-ELECTED

SOVIET CHOOSES FIRST AMBASSADOR TO UNITED STATES

MINISTER IS NAMED

Alexander Krionovsky to Represent Soviet Republic as Ambassador To United States

WASHINGTON, D.C., Nov. 20.—Alexander Krionovsky has been named ambassador of the Soviet Republic to United States following the recognition by United States of the Soviet as officially announced at the end of the week. Krionovsky was nominated to the post of ambassador yesterday by President Joseph Stalin and was approved by the United States Department of State as being "entirely acceptable." Krionovsky, who is fifty-one years of age, is at present vice-chairman of the State Planning Commission of the Soviet Republic. His only previous diplomatic experience has been at Tokyo and he is considered an authority on Oriental affairs.

ELECTION IN SPAIN

Widespread Disorders Throughout Country With Some Killings—Conservatives Returned

MADRID, Spain, Nov. 20.—The holding of the national election in Spain yesterday was attended by widespread disorders throughout the country, at least seven killings being held directly attributable to the voting. Early returns indicate the return of the Conservative government with a sweeping majority of seats for the Rightists. In addition to those killed, three hundred were injured and further violence is feared. It was Spain's first constitutional election.

PASSING OF STATESMAN

Rt. Hon. Augustine Birrell Was Chief Secretary For Ireland at Time of 1916 Rebellion

Was His Downfall

Prominent in British Public Life For Thirty Years Prior to That—Popular Personality

LONDON, Nov. 20: (CP)—Rt. Hon. Augustine Birrell, aged 83, who was Chief Secretary for Ireland at the time of the Irish Rebellion during Easter Week 1916, died here today. "The situation is well in hand," declared Birrell to the House of Commons during the week of the Irish Rebellion. "Yes," retorted an Opposition member, "the rebels seem to have the situation well in hand."

The General Post Office and half of the rest of what was then Sackville Street, Dublin, were reduced to ashy ruins. A week or two more and Mr. Birrell vacated the office of Chief Secretary. At the general election of December, 1918 he did not again offer. Continued on Page 2

WITHDRAWS FROM FIELD

Unionist Candidate Decides Not To Go To Post in Deferred Election In Vancouver Centre

VANCOUVER, November 20 (Canadian Press)—W. S. Mackenzie, Unionist, has withdrawn from the deferred election contest in Vancouver center in Vancouver Center, leaving twelve candidates in the field for the two seats. The fight is expected to be centered principally between Hon. Gordon Sloan, attorney general, and Gordon Wismer, Liberals, and W. W. Lefaux and J. S. Taylor, C. C. F., with the Liberals strongly favored to win. Mr. Mackenzie was the only Unionist nominee.

MR. FOUND IS COMING

Deputy Minister of Fisheries to Pay Annual Visit to Prince Rupert Early Next Month

Advice has been received in the city that W. A. Found, deputy minister of fisheries, will arrive in Prince Rupert December 3 aboard the steamer Catala in the course of his annual western inspection tour and will proceed east by train the next afternoon to his headquarters in Ottawa.

In view of the brevity of Mr. Found's visit here, it is now believed that no session of the International Fisheries Commission will be held in Prince Rupert this fall as had been previously suggested. As far as can be learned here, no important changes in the conservation regulations as regards the halibut fishery are expected to be made by the commission for next year. Mr. Found will be in the city for an entire day which should give the various interests who may be desirous of taking matters up with him the opportunity of having appointments.

Lord Craigavon and Unionist Party Has Many Acclamations

Win Thirty-Four Seats Out of Fifty-Two Without Contest—De Valera Enters Contest in Order to Further His United Ireland Idea

BELFAST, Northern Ireland, Nov. 20: (CP)—Viscount Craigavon, Premier of Northern Ireland, and his Unionist party, pledged to firm co-operation with the United Kingdom, were assured continuance in office after today's nominations for the general election, polling in which will take place on November 30. Acclamations gave the government thirty-four seats out of a total of fifty-two, a clear majority over all already. The entire cabinet of seven members received acclamations.

President de Valera of the Irish Free State will contest South Down seat but, if elected, will probably not take the seat but direct other Nationalists to further his policy for a united Ireland.

United States Gold Price Is Up Again Today

DEAD AT THE PAS

Bishop Charlebois of Roman Catholic Church Passes Away This Morning

A telegram received this morning by Rt. Rev. E. M. Buno O. M. I., Bishop of the Roman Catholic Church for the diocese of Northern British Columbia and the Yukon, announced the death at The Pas, Man., of Bishop Ovide Charlebois J. M. I., one of the best known clerics of the Roman Catholic church in Canada.

The late Bishop Charlebois was born at Oka, l'Assomption, near Montreal, February 17, 1862, and practically all his life had been spent in missionary work for his church in the Keewatin district of Western Ontario and later in Northern Ontario. He was educated at College de l'Assomption and Ottawa University and was Vicar Apostolic at Keewatin before being made Bishop at The Pas.

NEW YORK TO MIAMI

James Weidel Makes Flight in Shade Over Five Hours

MIAMI, Fla., Nov. 20:—James Weidel, noted American speed flyer, landed here yesterday after a flight of five hours and three minutes from New York. He had hoped to make the flight in four hours but was delayed on account of fog.

J. E. Moody of Port Simpson, who has been on a vacation trip to Vancouver and elsewhere in the south, was a passenger aboard the Catala last evening returning north.

MURDER IS CONFIRMED

Hat of Brooke Hart Found in San Francisco Bay Not Far From San Mateo Bridge

SAN JOSE, Cal., Nov. 20.—The battered and water-soaked hat of Brooke Hart, 22-year old son of Alexander Hart, wealthy San Jose merchant, was found floating in the bay near the Alameda shore not far from the San Mateo-Hayward bridge yesterday, thus confirming the confession to police of Thomas H. Thurmond and Jack Holmes that they had murdered the youth by beating him into insensibility and throwing him over the bridge within an hour after having kidnapped him on November 9. On being shown the hat, the boy's father gave up any lingering hope that he had held that the youth might have been still alive. The body has not yet been recovered.

REPORT ON CUBA MADE

U. S. Minister Wells in Session With President Roosevelt at Warm Springs Yesterday

WARM SPRINGS, Ga., Nov. 20:—United States Minister Wells to Cuba was in conference with President Franklin D. Roosevelt here for five hours yesterday, presenting an official report to the chief executive on the Cuban situation as it affects United States interests. Last night Mr. Wells left here for Atlanta, Ga., whence he was to proceed to Washington, being due to arrive in the national capital this afternoon.

It is announced that Mr. Wells will return to his duties at Havana after a brief stay in Washington. This announcement is the cause of some surprise, the general expectation in diplomatic circles having been that he would be recalled.

Former Star of Movies is Booze Agent in Chicago

CHICAGO, Nov. 20:—Francis X. Bushman, former moving picture star of the silent screen days, is now employed as a liquor agent in this city.
