OPENING OF NEW STORE

Large Number Attended Interesting Event Yesterday Afternoon In Federal Block

In spite of the inclement weather about two hundred and fifty ladies of the city attended the opening of Annette's new ladies' store in the Federal Block yesterday afternoon. It was a new departure in merchandising, so far as Prince Rupert is concerned. Music was provided from three to six by Balagno's orchestra and tea was served in the commodious rest room at the rear. Annette met all the guests and welcomed them to her new business home.

The setting for the event was a picturesque one. The furnishings and fixtures were all decorated in green and black and the gowns and hats and other articles of feminine apparel blended into the general color scheme with good effect.

The shop assistants all wore white dresses with white shoes to match adding a touch of uniformity which was very pleasing.

The shop, the largest of its kind in Prince Rupert, lent itself nicely to the occasion. Although there were so many present, there seemed plenty of room for visitors to see the goods that were displayed and it is understood that a very satisfactory business was done.

Many congratulations were showered upon the proprietress and the opinion expressed that her progressive policy should bring good returns. The store was a credit to Prince Rupert and to the person who had conceived it.

The ladies' rest room nicely furnished with a chesterfield suite and accomaniments, was particularly welcomed by the visitors as something which had not heretofore been provided.

An office was provided for the manager, W. F. Stone, near the entrance to the store, and he occupied it with proper dignity at the opening.

The first customer in the store was Mrs. Ross Ingram, who was presented with a lovely pair of French kid gauntlet gloves to mark the occasion.

Annette's capable staff consisted of Miss Pearl Stone, Miss Victoria Krikevsky, Mrs William Stuart and Miss Ruby Krikevsky.

Mrs. W. R. Scott of Anyox and Mrs. E. Webster poured and their assistants in serving tea were Miss Verna Brochu and Miss Nina Hunter.
