ANOTHER WHALER IS LAUNCHED

The Steamer Moran Leaves the Phone 125 Stocks at Seattle-Will Enter Canadian Service.

The new steam whaler Moran has been successfully launched from the yarts of the Moran shipbuilding company at Seattle.

The Moran is a sister vessel to the Paterson, which was launched last Saturday. She was built for the Canadian North Pacific Fisheries company, of Vancouver, of which Dr. L. Rismuller, of Victoria, is the head. She is an oil-burning vessel with a large cruising radius and will be able W. W. GREENER to follow schools of whales for a long distance. The vessel is 96 feet long, with 18 feet beam and has a depth of 11.6 feet.

> The Moran and the Paterson will carry the most modern equipment for harpooning whales, floatling them and moving them to the whaling stations. Each vessel carries in her bow a harpoon gun shooting a harpoon carrying an explosive charge. They also will have pumps with which to fill the whale carcasses with air in order that they may be floated to the stations.
