Canada Will Maintain Sound Money Position Says Premier Bennett

Canada Has Plenty of Currency and is Solvent so Will Meet Her Contracts, Toronto Board of Trade is Told

TORONTO, Jan. 24:-Canada will maintain her sound money position, will not inflate her currency, will maintain her proud position in the eyes of the world and will meet her obligation in the terms of the contract, Premier R. B. Bennett told the Board of Trade here last night.

Only two reasons existed for inflation-lack of currency or insolvency. "There is no lack of currency in the country and Canada is solvent," the Premier stated. "Unless abnormal conditions are obtained and unless something that cannot be foreseen happens," Mr. Bennett said, "this country cannot, dare not, part from sound

Terms of U. S. President and Congress Will Henceforth End in > January Instead of March WASHINGTON, Jan. 24:-The change in the constitution, generally known here as the Lame Duck Law, became effective yesterday with the ratifying of the measure by the state of Missouri. This was the thirty-sixth state to ratify the measure, the approval of that number of states being required by the constitution to effect a change.

The law provides that the presitential and congressional terms shall end in January instead of March and thus avoid the necessity for the short or lame duck session of Congress which follows the elections in November after which a number of the congressmen are not_ the real representatives of the people and possibly, as this year, the president has been defeated and is only awaiting the lapse of time to step out and give place to his suc-
