A GLORIOUS VICTORY

The people of Prince Rupert are to be congratulated on the result of the election yesterday. They showed their confidence in T. D. Pattullo, the man who has represented them since 1916, and on this occasion they had the privilege of electing the man who in a few days will be Premier of the province.

While the Liberal vote was large there was a large vote also given to the local member by Conservatives and Laborites who appreciate the man and his work and the peculiar position in which the city is placed. They rose to the occasion splendidly and great credit is due them for placing the good of the community before party.

A few former Liberals supported the C. C. F. candidate but nothing like as many as it was supposed would do so. Doubtless they did so conscientiously so everybody is

The outstanding feature of the election generally was the almost total defeat of the independents who got their just deserts for deserting their chief at the last moment after receiving all possible benefits from their association with him. The catchword "the people are tired of the old parties," did not work. It was a political slogan coined for the purpose of trying to defeat the Liberals and it failed.

There are six more members to be elected, four in Victoria and two in Vancouver Centre. On the result of this deferred election will rest the decision as to what is to be the official opposition group and who is to be leader of the opposition. Possibly the position of leader of the opposition will be abolished.

Mr. Bruhn, who aspired to be Premier finds himself almost alone in the new House and Attorney General Pooley is absolutely alone, the sole survivor of a party that went into power five years ago under such auspicious circumstances and with such a large majority. It is the end of a political tragedy.

GREAT TASK AHEAD

The new administration will have a great task ahead of it. The general financial condition of the province will have to be surveyed and dealt with and plans made for inamong in a mulaument so that the unemployed can be put to work. It is a Herculean task but we have faith in our leader that he will tackle it with courage. We feel sure we can speak for many who voted against him that they, as well as his supporters, will be behind him in his efforts to better conditions and bring order out of chaos.
