A. Suydam, San Francisco brick manufacturer, was a passenger on board the Catala yesterday afternoon returning south after a brief visit to Anyox to confer with officials of the Granby Co.

C.N.R. steamer Prince George, Capt. H. E. Nedden, arrived in port 11 o'clock this morning from Vancouver, Powell River and Ocean Falls and will sail at 4 o'clock this afternoon for Anyox, Stewart and other northern points whence she will return here tomorrow evening southbound.

Mrs. James Gillett, who underwent a major operation at the end of last week in the Prince Rupert General Hospital, is now making good recovery. Her husband, Indian Agent James Gillett of the Queen Charlotte Islands, will be returning to his headquarters at Massett at the first opportunity while Mrs. Gillett expects to return to the Islands on the next trip of the ss. Prince John two weeks from Friday night.

ARMY SALE AT VILLAGE

Success Scored by Salvation Army In Event at Metlakatla

METLAKATLA, Dec. 6.—On Tuesday night last the Home League of the Metlakatla Corps of the Salvation Army held its annual sale in the Army Hall which was packed to capacity by an eager crowd. There was a short program preceding the sale. Features were community singing, witty anecdotes by Jacob Cooper, pantomime of one verse of a well known hymn by G. H. Clifton and vocal solo, a minstrel item, entitled "Climb Up, Ye Chillun, Climb," by G. H. Clifton with mandolin accompaniment by E. A. Leighton all of which brought forth much applause.

It was noticed that there are many new members in the Home League. Prizes were given to the most deserving in needle-work as follows: Mrs. James Prevost for competency and efficiency, Mrs. D. E. Ryan for cutting, Mrs. F. Leask for designing, Miss Freda Campbell for expert use of the sewing machine, Mrs. R. D. Leighton for edging and Miss M. Anderson for willingness to work.

Chief Councillor W. A. Leask made an excellent chairman for the evening and was later elected auctioneer. The sale of foodstuffs and needlework was very satisfying and the splendid sum of $46.45 was realized, this being considered very encouraging. The coffee and cake stand was well patronized throughout the evening as was also the target shooting for the children, where every shot won a prize.

This most popular event closed by the usual vote of thanks and the singing of the Doxology.
