CONFERENCE ENDS

The much touted world economic conference from which so much was expected has ended, temporarily at least, with practically nothing done. After much talk and much compiling of data and many conferences between individual nations all that has been achieved is to find out that no agreement acceptable to all could be reached which North Vancouver, judging by the year previous. There had been no -Hunt; Gomez and Moe; Hill Mcwould tend to benefit the world. ### TRAIL UP MOUNTAIN

The announcement made yesterday in this paper that the provincial government is planning to put the unemployed to work on the trail up the mountain is pretty good news. To do that camps will not be necessary. The men will be able to continue to live in the city and the work is see that quick action is taken in reone that will appeal to every citizen. The trail is needed moving the ruin on Third Avenue and there is need for the men to get gradually back into in order to be a good example to the training for the time when they can once more command full time wages. That time will soon be here, no matter what the pessimists say.

KEEN FOR NOMINATIONS

It will be noticed that outstanding Liberals are keen to secure nomination for seats in the Legislature. Some of Mackenzie riding, declares that, if Yukon Territory enroute to the field for seats in the provincial their supporters are so keen that they forget the usual amenities of public assembly. It is a good sign. It indicates that they expect Liberalism to be triumphant at the next like that before. election. Nobody has been fighting to secure a nomination to the Tolmie or the Bowser or the Co-operative Commonwealth Federation tickets.
