FIRST DANCE THIS WINTER

Affair Staged Last Night By Elks Lodge Very Enjoyable

The local Elks' Lodge held its opening dance of the winter season last night in the Elks' Home, the affair proving to be one of much enjoyment for the forty or so couples who were present. Excellent music was provided by Charlie Balagno's Orchestra from 10 p.m. until 2 a.m. and Joe Scott was a genial master of ceremonies. At midnight delightful refreshments were served.

The committee in charge consisted of Joe Scott, Sam Joy. Alex Mitchell, Bill Lambie, Walter Johnson and Jack Cobb with "Nifty" Lambert presiding at the door.

Court Order Means That David Lamson Will Not Go to Gallows Before Next Year

SAN JOSE, Sept. 30:-When David A. Lamson, former Stanford | contest the four Victoria seats University publishing house, execu- | in the Legislature. tive, left San Jose at noon Friday for San Quentin Penitentiary, where he has been sentenced to be hanged on December 15 for the murder of his wife by bludgeoning her to death in the bathroom of their FIVE DIE home in June, it was assured that the execution would be deferred until next year. Application had been granted by the courts for a review of the transcript which will automatically mean that the execution cannot be effected by the date set. Meantime, a coroner's jury inquiring into the death of Mrs. Lamson returned an open verdict, findng that the young woman had come to her death as a result of violent force due to a blow on the ormer City Clerk of Prince George back of the head but failing to name an assailant.

Ford More Concerned With Giving Living Wage Than With N.I.R.A.; Outspoken

DETROIT, Sept. 30:-Issuing a statement yesterday, Henry Ford declared that he was more concerned with providing a living wage for the employees in his automobile manufacturing plants than with strict adherence to the code of the National Industrial Recovery Act which he has refused to sign up under. He announced that a five-day, forty-hour week would be adopted in his plants and that disciplinary measures would be applied in the event of strike attempts. Already five hundred employees in one of the company's plants had been discharged for this reason and, if strike agitators forced him to do so, he would be prepared to close down his plants altogether, Mr. Ford made it clear.
