Honored Before Leaving For Oona River to Reside

A surprise party was held last evening at the home of Misses Elsie and Edith Murvold, Ambrose Avenue, for Violet and Johnny Wick who, with their parents, Mr. and Mrs. O. Wick, are leaving for Oona River to reside. Twenty-four young friends gathered together and a most enjoyable time was spent. The room was daintily decorated for the occasion, games were played and delicious refreshments served by Mrs. J. Murvold and Mrs. T. Selvig.

A presentation was made on behalf of the girl friends to Violet by Elsie Murvold and to Johnny from his boy friends by Hans Peterson. Speeches were made by several of the young folk.

Those present were Solveig Jensen, Norma Walters, Mary Skog, Patricia and Charles Love, Astrid Hans and Peter Peterson, Billy Halcrow, Mabel and Ole Slatta, Tone and Arne Selvig, Oie Sorensen, Elsie and Edith Murvold, Violet and Johnny Wick, Signe and Arma Johnson, Magnhild, Eleanor and Rolf Storseth.

$9.55 per month saved from age 30 will provide a pension of $50 per month for life at age 65. Annual dividends may be used to reduce the premium-paying period or increase the pension. Pensions can also start at 50, 55 or 60.

TODAY you are writing your own life story . . . which man will you be? The "poor old chap" who has seen better days, depending on relatives or strangers,

OR

The independent, comfortable man—able to enjoy life and freedom with a guaranteed income?

For a very small amount each month you can make the future secure and free from worry, your share of the earnings of the company swelling your investment under the Mutual plan.

Write for booklets and particulars of this Pension Policy for yourself. Pension policies for women are also available.

Social Enlightenment Combined With Dramatic Entertainment in Sensational Picture Coming Here

The perils of social disease and the inevitable taint which is passed on to succeeding generations are frankly revealed in an understandable and salutory way in the talking picture "Damaged Lives" which is coming to the Capitol Theatre here at the first of next week. On Monday night the picture will be shown to audiences of women only and on Tuesday to men only. It is the first time that a subject dealing with this theme has made its way into a talking picture and, incidentally, it is to be exhibited under the auspices of the Canadian Social Hygiene Council.

The poignancy of the story reaches a level that is very seldom attained in motion picture drama. Diane Sinclair is said to give a stellar performance in the leading role with Lyman Williams taking the principal male part. Charlotte Merriam, Jason Robards and Harry Myers are also prominent members of the cast.

Along with the feature is produced a special set of supplementary pictures, also made with talkie technique, dealing with the anatomy and physiology of reproduction and the medical aspects of social diseases.

BAGSHAW WON BOUT

with south-paw Darrow Gomez, a robust mixer, in four rounds that stole the show in the prelims. Johnny was all over the other fellow with lefts and rights from long range, showing marked improvement over his last bout.

Jimmy Bremner was over-matched against Chuck Hickey and, after giving blow for blow for three rounds, found the going too tough and had it stopped for him in the middle of the next. Chuck carries too many guns and too much experience for Jimmy who got a big hand from the crowd when he left the ring.

A three-round exhibition between Tiger Smith and Jack Dempsey started the best fight bill to be seen here in a good many moons.

Fosse refereed all bouts. Jack McDougall and Bert Morgan, the judges, had an easy night. Max Heilbroner was time-keeper and Gillis Royer announcer.

The Boys' Band, under their leader, Robert Greenfield, pepped things up between bouts.
