Is Drowned From Raft in Quesnel

Hugh Dickinson, 62-Year Old Prospector, Loses Life When Craft Capsizes

QUESNEL, June 12: (Canadian Press)—Hugh Dickinson, 62-year old prospector, was drowned and R. Shannon barely escaped when a ten-ton raft they were piloting down the Quesnel River from Hydraulic with mining machinery capsized.

LOCAL NEWS

Mrs. Harry Thrupp and child sailed Saturday on the Prince Rupert for a trip to Vancouver.

Admiral W. O. Story C.B.E., of Ottawa, supervisor of Sea Cadet Corps of Canada, arrived in the city on the Princess Norah this morning from Vancouver and, after conducting his annual inspection of the local corps this evening, will proceed East by train. Admiral Storey is accompanied on his western tour by Mrs. Story.

Hospital Shows Surplus in May

First Time This Year That Revenue Has Exceeded Expenditure

For the first time this year the finance committee was able to report to the hospital board at its regular monthly meeting last Friday night a surplus on a month's operation of the institution, receipts for May having exceeded disbursements by 73.70. Revenue for the month, including the city's grant for October last year amounting to $996.96, totalled $3908.44 while disbursements for the month amounted to $3834.74. If the sum of $6,463.12 owing by the city in arrears of grant were paid up, it would just about even revenue and expenditure for the year to date, the committee reported.

There were 1479 hospital days in May at a cost per hospital day of $2.59.

John G. Blanchard, general passenger agent for the Yukon and White Pass Route at Skagway, was a passenger aboard the Princess Norah this morning going north for the summer after having spent the winter in Seattle.

The Letter Box

UNEMPLOYED CAMPS

Editor, Daily News:—

Mr. Hogg's reply to "Citizen" in your Saturday's issue had no mention of the fact that the United States federal government has all along contributed to the states and municipalities who in turn handed it out in direct relief. It is only a matter of two months since President Roosevelt voted five hundred million dollars for direct relief apart from the three billion dollar loan appropriated for public works.

"Citizen's" memory is short, indeed, if he forgets the result of the investigation into relief expenditures in this province a year ago. The findings of this commission were that about 75% of the monies appropriated for relief found its way into the pockets of people who did not require relief. Anyway, sufficient to say that the result was hushed up as being too scandalous to lay before the public.

"Citizen's" crack about unemployment organizations affecting the expense is true. If they did not exist there would be more pre-election graft for the government's retainers. As far as the camps are concerned, I presume they are to be a happy home for ex-officers, who will have all the privileges of their rank, with pay, but a hell for the unemployed.

A. RUSHFORD.

WHIFFLETS

From the Waterfront

Following up his plans as announced at the first of last week in these columns, Capt. W. P. Armour, head of the Armour Salvage Co., got away last Friday night with the Salvage Princess for Vancouver, taking south two donkey engines, purchased recently at the sale of effects of the National Airplane Lumber Co., and the 25 h.p. Fairbanks-Morse full diesel engine which was taken from the wreck of the halibut boat Livingstone II. One of the donkeys was on board a scow in tow of the Princess while the other donkey and the engine formed a deckload for the power tug. It is expected all will be resold in Vancouver. Capt. Armour plans on being back in about ten days' time.

Ruth Chatterton In "'Frisco Jenny"

First Lady of Screen Appears at Capitol in Another Very Dramatic Role

"Frisco Jenny," a stirring and glamorous tale of the Old Barbary Coast of San Francisco, presenting Ruth Chatterton in a role somewhat similar to that of "Madame X.," which was regarded as one of her greatest screen successes, comes to the Capitol Theatre here as the feature picture for the first of this week. Miss Chattereon appears as the hard and unscrupulous queen of the demi-monde whose unsurpassable love for her only son eventually leads her to the gallows. The son unaware that she is his mother, is the prosecutor in a dramatic court scene. The film, in addition to showing the temples of pleasure, gilded dives and gambling dens of the old 'Frisco, also depicts thrillingly the great earthquake.

Donald Cook, James Murray and Louis Calhern have important supporting roles.
