Canada's Anthem

O Canada, our home and native land True patriot love in all thy sons

With glowing heart we see thee rise The true North strong and free, And stand on guard, O Canada, We stand on guard for thee.

O Canada, glorious and free O Canada we stand on guard for

O Canada we stand on guard for

THAT LETTER

On Friday a letter was published in this paper which seems to have roused a good deal of feeling. When the letter was received it was looked upon as a satire and nothing else and no one dreamed it would be taken seriously. This statement is made in fairness to everybody.

VALUE OF MOUNTAIN

About ten or twelve years ago W. E. Williams, then a ---resident of the city and prominent in the Chamber of BASKETBALL Commerce, tried to interest Prince Rupert people in cutting a good trail to the top of Mount Oldfield, with a view to its use by both local residents and tourists. The movement fell through.

Last winter the popularizing of the mountain was com- February 21-Kaiens vs. Grotto: in first class shape again. About a menced in a different manner. During the summer a cabin was built and this winter ski parties or mountain climbing parties have become quite the thing. Ban Lifted on

There is talk of building more cabins or club houses on the mountain for use either summer or winter and it seems as if Oldfield was, after all these years, coming into its own. It should prove a very valuable asset to the

BASKETBALL PLAYED AT ESSINGTON

Local Tuxis Team Wins Against Villagers and Were Hospitably Entertained

The Tuxis basketball team took the Port Essington aggregation into camp to the tune of 46-35, in a rough and tumble game at the week-end. The Morrison brothers and Santurbane ran in three baskets in the first two minutes of play giving Rupert a good start. P. Spalding put Essington on the heet when he scored after a nice bit of combination. Rupert drew away to a gre lad but as half time approached Essington sank several in succession making the half time score 22-14. In the second half Rupert turned on the heat, feeding Santurbane, who made 14 points while Nakamoto and Comadina shared the other 10. P. Spalding, the Essington star, made 13 points in this frame while Douglas and 190 H. Reid proved a very impartial referee but did not object to the 3.00 boys bouncing each other off the 9.00 walls to the delight of Essington fans. Individual scoring was:
