Premier Pattullo is to be congratulated once more on having been endorsed by the election of four out of six of the Liberal candidates in Vancouver and Victoria vesterday. The members of his cabinet, Hon. John Hart in Victoria and Hon. Gordon Sloan in Vancouver, were elected and one other each in Vancouver and Victoria. It was a distinct victory although not so great a victory as to cause the Liberals to feel that they own the world.

Byron Johnson, who led the polls in Victoria, carrying the Liberal banner, was known some years ago in lacrosse circles as Boss Johnson. He is personally very popular in the capital. Herbert Anscombe, Independent Conservative. was reeve of Oak Bay and then mayor of Victoria. Now he is a member of the Legislature and will doubtless be making a bid for leadership there in a few years. Rev. Robert Connell, elected on the C. C. F. ticket, is a clergyman of the Church of England at present without a charge, a writer on nature subjects, a keen geologist and botanist, a socialist of many years' standing and a very fine type of man. Doubtless it was his personality rather than his political creed that placed him in fourth place among the winners.

Of the losers in Victoria Rev. Clem Davies, pastor of the City Temple, is very popular in the capital. He had attack ed the new leader with considerable virulence and would have made a good opposition member. The failure of such men as Hayward, Clearibue and Moresby and the almost total slighting of Joe North, at one time hero of a police commission fight, indicates that even in Victoria political opinion changes quickly.

The large vote accorded the C. C. F. both in Vancouver and Victoria is an indication of the dissatisfaction which exists at the present condition of affairs both in the province and the Dominion generally and should be a solemn warning to those who still think all they have to do is to sit pat and use the police force in order to insure stability. That time is gone forever. We are at the beginning of a new era and there will have to be many political changes in the very near future. Those who do not fall in line will have to fall out. The evident demand of the British Columbia election is for a change of general policies and the same demand will be felt soon in the Dominion field. Happy is he who can envision the new deal and bend his energies toward bringing it about.

SAN JOSE LYNCHINGS

The local reaction to the lynchings in California seem to have varied a great deal. While some people feel that it is a good way to deal with such cases, others look upon it as a reflection on the United States system of dealing with criminal cases and indicates a fear that the criminals may escape that retribution which is their due. Also they look on it as a dangerous precedent. Once it becomes a habit for the mob to take the law into its own hands, the system of dealing with criminals is apt to degrade into one of mob law. Unhappily the mob is often wrong and, under the excitement of the moment, is liable to commit worse crimes than the criminals whom it is designed to suppress. It is doubtful too what may be the moral effect on a few thou- sach public school, prizes of $5.00 sand people who witnessed the execution and who jeered and $2.50 are being given for the at the criminals as they were sent to meet their Maker. It smacks too much of the savagery of the North American Indians years ago.

There is also a prize of $25.00 being offered to all adults of Prince Rupert, exclusive of school childre and members of the Junior Chamber of Commerce, on the same subject, namely, "Advantages of Buy- Cribbage League ing in Prince Rupert." These essays are also limited to 500 words and should be forwarded to Box 864 not later than December 4 when they will be placed in the hands of three judges for examination and selection of the winning essay. Although neatness and grammaical correctness is desirable in the writing of all essays, still the most important basis of selection will be the logical array of facts and explanations of the "Advantages of Buying in Prince Rupert." The prizes are being donated the merchants of Prince Rupert and their names will be published in a later issue of this paper.

The winning essay from each school also the winning essay submitted by adult competitors will be printed in the local press. Thanking you, I am Secior hoopsters last night put up most exciting game that has been seen in this town for many a moon. The game opened up with the Ironmongers taking an early lead over the trainmen, 8-2. The railwaymen, Lowever, soon got the all-clear signal and led at the breather 27-17.

The second half was more or less! a repetition of the first half with the C. N. R. A. steadily forging ahead. E. Smith playing his first game of the season for C.N.R.A. was bounced off the floor five minutes before full time. "Bullet" Scott went on a shooting orgy and drew his teammates up within winning distance. Steffersurd tied up the game with a field goal. Stiles fouled Kelsey and the latter sunk the winning basket and "Bullet Joe" cinched it with a ringer. The Railwaymen had the game well in hand until the latter part of the second half when Lanky Stiles blew up and started to argue with the referee, coming out sec ond best and also losing the game for his team-mates.
