CASE IS MYSTERY

Chicago Authorities Still Baffled By Murder of Beautiful Young Woman

CHICAGO, Nov. 23.—Both Dr. Alice Lindsay Wynkoop, mother-in-law, and Earl Wynkoop, estranged husband of Rheta Wynkoop, who was slain in Chicago's operating room mystery of a few days ago, are under arrest charged with the murder of the beautiful young woman. Each evidently trying to shield the other, both have "confessed" to the crime and the police are at a loss to decide which if either, is the bona-fide confession. The young woman, authorities have announced, was given an overdose of chloroform on the operating room table in the mansion of the mother-in-law where Dr. Wynkoop was presumably giving her an examination. There were also traces of mercury in the liver but the woman is believed to have been alive when a shot was fired into her body, this being indicated by bleeding from the wound.

There is another theory that the mother-in-law and husband may have collaborated in the killing. Meantime, the investigation is proceeding and the case continues to excite much public interest.

DRAMA IN NEW FORM

"Narratage" Introduced in Stirring Story "Power and Glory" at Capitol Theatre

Something new in the presentation of talking picture drama is developed in the filming of "The Power and Glory" which is running as the first of the week feature on the screen of the Capitol Theatre here. The picture opens with the showing of the funeral service of Tom Garner, president of a great western railway system. That evening Garner's old and faithful secretary relates the life story of his chief to his wife in order to make her understand that he was not a man to be feared and hated but rather one to be pitied. As the narrator talks, the story is unfolded with its many dramatic and romantic incidents. It is a most original picture with fine acting and direction. "Narratage" is the name given the new method of presentation.

Spencer Tracy gives a fine portrayal in the leading role while Colleen Moore is splendid first as a young and later as a middle-aged woman. Ralph Morgan has the important task of narrator. Helen Vinson and J. Farrell MacDonald are also seen in important parts.
