NEW FORM OF GOVT

Throne Speech Provides For Putting Of Newfoundland Under Commission

ST. JOHN'S, Nfld., Nov. 28: (CP)—Legislation to implement the report of the Royal Commission recommending that the administration of Newfoundland be taken over by a commission of six members headed by the Governor was forecast in the Throne Speech at the opening of the Newfoundland Parliament yesterday.

Premier F. C. Alderdice, in recommending that the report of the Royal Commission be adopted, felt that, by doing so, the public of Newfoundland would be more speedily relieved of some of the burden which it is now carrying. He could foresee the day, he said, when Newfoundland would be freed of some of the serious difficulties which it was now facing and would be able to conduct its own affairs in the usual way.
