Two sealed tenders for a new roof on the municipal building, according to specifications furnished by the commissioners were opened as follows:

The Tongue

"The boneless tongue, so small, so weak,
Can crush and kill," declares the Greek.
"The tongue destroys a greater horde,"
The Turks assert, "than does the sword."
A Persian proverb wisely saith:
"A lengthy tongue, an early death;"
Or sometimes takes this form instead:
"Don't let your tongue cut off your head."
"The tongue can speak a word whose speed,"
Says the Chinese, "outstrips the steed;"
While Arab sages this impart:
"The tongue's great storehouse is the heart."
From the Hebrew writ this saying sprung:
"Tho' feet should slip, ne'er let the tongue,"
The sacred writer crowns the whole.
"Who keeps his tongue doth keep his soul."

PLOWING WINNERS

Second Annual Contest is Held at Vanderhoof—Indians Take Prizes

VANDERHOOF, July 31:—The second annual plowing match to be held in the Central Interior took place Thursday, July 27 at the farm of George Snell, pioneer settler at Vanderhoof.

The event this year was sponsored by the Nechako Farmers' Institute and, to a large extent, the success of the day was due to the energetic efforts of the committee composed of D. Irving, J. Goldie, A. J. F. Rae, T. B. Mitchell, J. H. McMillan, J. H. Andros and C. Smedley.

The Indian department, as it did last year, co-operated with the institute and Herb Moore and Andy Rae, representing the Indian department at Vanderhoof, are to be highly complimented for the degree of success they have attained in their efforts to encourage the Indians to adopt better culture methods. Out of the fifteen entries, nine were Indians and they captured more than their share of the awards, winning seven out of the the nine specials and making the two highest scores on the field.

Throughout the match a vast improvement over the previous year in the method of plowing was to be noted and the judges, J. Manning, Telkwa, D. Sutherland, Smithers and H. S. French, Prince George had considerable worry and covered many miles of ground in placing awards. The following prizes were awarded:

Indian Department Walking Plow
Senior—Duncan Alex, Frank Antoire, Jones Thomas.
Junior—Alex Johnny.
Competing Settlers, Walking Plow
Senior—Val Gazanska, George Streigler.
Junior—John Goldie jr.
Sulky Plow
Senior—John Boor.
Junior—Walter Irving.
Gang Plow
Senior—Jack Lewis.

The following specials were awarded:

Duncan Alex repeated his victory of last year and captured the silver trophy given for highest points on the field for plowing and also took the prize offered for the best crown and five furrows.

Jonas Thomas was judged to have made the best start and John Goldie jr. the best finish. Morris Thomas secured the special awarded for the best working team and also the prize for the best turned out team.

The business men's class which aroused much interest was won by E. C. McGeachy and the ease and mastery he displayed in handling his plow caused many of the farmers present to suggest that he must have put considerable rehearsing before the contest.

Youngest plowman was Alex Johnny and oldest, Donald George, both local Indians.

Luncheon Is Served

Before commencing the match a demonstration of opening the land for plowing was given by John Goldie of Vanderhoof. After the competitors completed their crowns an interval was given when a tasty luncheon was served by the lady members of the North Side Community Hall.

The Nechako Farmers' Institute is to be highly commended in the way it is taking hold of and sponsoring activities of public interest. They are this year behind the local creamery, handling the plowing match and plan to establish a Fall Fair at Vanderhoof in the near future.

This large district with settlers of the energy and capabilities displayed by the members of the institute is well on the way to becoming one of the leading agricultural communities in the province.

Children riding bicycles are requested by the police to slow down at signals and abide by all rules while on the streets or further action will have to be taken.

SPECTACLE OF SCREEN

"Forty-Second Street," Big Musical Picture, Being Staged at Capitol Theatre

Heralding the return of musical pictures to the talking screen, "Forty-Second Street," dramatic musical comedy spectacle, opens a three-day run at the Capitol Theatre here tonight. It has an all-star cast of noted screen and stage players and features many musical and dancing acts which are said to be very fine. Besides being snappy, colorful and packed with laughs, the picture also has a dramatic underlying theme. It reveals the mammoth spectacle of a musical comedy show in preparation and when it is finished.

The stellar names in the cast include those of Warner Baxter, Bebe Daniels, Ruby Keeler, George Brent, Una Merkel, Guy Kibbee, Dick Powell, Ginger Rogers and many others. It is one of the most imposing casts since "Grand Hotel." One hundred and fifty of the most beautiful girls from stage and screen were selected to take part in the chorus.

Special songs were written for the picture, some of these being already very popular on the radio such as "I'm Young and Healthy," "Shuffle on to Buffalo," "You're Getting to be a Habit With Me" and "Forty-Second Street."

The screen play is based on the popular novel by Bradford Ropes.

Good Progress Building Trail To Butze Rapids

Good progress is reported on the building of the trail from the highway to Butze Rapids, something like 600 feet of the walk being now completed, the bad places bridged with corduroy. Those on the job Saturday were John Murray, Archie, H. Zumkhr, Peter Watson and Ross Mackay. Jack Cook and Fred Wesch provided transportation, the Commodore Cafe the eats and George Munro and Bill Watts the drinks.

It is expected that six new men will be on the job next Saturday.
