THE COSY CORNER

DEVOTED PRINCIPALLY TO THE INTERESTS OF WOMEN

This is a little section of the paper, which from day to day will be devoted to subjects of special interest to women. Any and all of the ladies of Prince Rupert are invited to contribute to its columns, and to take part in its discussions. Suggestions and criticisms are invited by the editor. The hope is expressed that "The Cosy Corner" will fill a social need.

HANDSOME STRIPED SUIT

an eighteen-minute flight the other day she flew over Watlham, Watertown, Waverly and Belmont. She performed her evolutions with the same speed and daring that have marked the flights of her husband and she made a perfect landing.

HOUSEHOLD HINTS

Every One a Winner. Try Them in Your Own Home

Matches can be made waterproof by dipping them in very hot melted paraffine.

Add a teaspoonful of soda to a gallon of water when rinsing lavender linens.

Try adding half a dozen raisins to a pot of coffee. The slight change in flavor is delicious.

A delicious sandwich is made of brown bread cut very thin, and spread with caviare.

Some housekeepers prefer a piece of ordinary screening to all else for cleaning a flat-iron.

A luxury in the shape of a hot water bag is the one which comes provided with a silk cover.

Before putting away a plush garment it is well to clean it by sponging it over with gasoline.

The chanteur has invaded the kitchen and cookie cutters in the shape of roosters are available.

To remove a scar make an ointment of 40 grains of boric acid and one ounce of lanolin. Apply this daily.

When washing window panes or cupboard doors use a little whiting on the flannel instead of soap.

An effective suit developed in cream serge, showing a black stripe and black satin, is illustrated in today's sketch, and is one of the pleasing summer models. The coat fits the figure closely about the hips and curves gracefully at the waist line. The skirt is designed on pleasing lines, and the hat matches the costume in color effect. Dark blue serge showing a white stripe would develop well in this model, with the bands of blue satin.

DOWN ON FASHION

Zion City Leader Dictates to the Ladies There

Love, politics, and hobble skirts are hopelessly entangled in the latest edicts of Wilbur Glenn Voliva, overseer at Zion City, the north shore community founded by the late John Alexander Dowie.

Voliva discovered that some of the young women of his faction are actually making love to young men in Zion who are opposing him. The overseer officially took the matter in hand and issued an order forbidding the young women of the church to associate with his enemies.

"If you want to wear hobble or harem skirts go live in a pond with toads and frogs, where you belong, you fools," writes the overseer. "The word of God calls for moderate dress and there is no reason why Christian women should follow the dictates of foolish old women over in Paris. People of today will wear anything, or practically nothing, just as Dame Fashion dictates."

ITEMS OF SPORT

Sam Langford, the Boston negro heavyweight, knocked out Jack Fitzgerald, a Philadelphia "white hope," in the fifth round of a ten-round fight the other day.

In the class for Jumpers for teams of two, fifth place was won by Hon. C. Sifton's Elmhurst and Wasp, at the London Horse Show.

The new manager of Brandon, in the Western Canada League, is Joe Custer, who formerly caught for Seattle. Joe went to Rock Island last spring to backstop for Bill Carney.

To add to the triumphs of the coronation, King George VI of England scored a big turf victory when his three-year-old, Dorando, won the Bottisham Plate from a field of six. Dorando was favorite at 2 to 1.

Tom Flanagan and Jack Johnson, evidently intend handing the Dublin fight fans a jolt and the Bob Day match with the negro champion is to be staged. A card from Flanagan to Tim O'Rourke, says: "Have Bob Day ready when I cable for him. Get that stomach off him." Day is the amateur heavyweight champion of Canada, who lately turned professional.

Secretary Fred Thompson of the Toronto lacrosse club, has admitted that he communicated with Gordon Spring, asking the terms on which the latter would play for Toronto, but denied offering five thousand dollars or any such sum.

Coach Alf. Smith of the Capitals, has announced that he had practically closed with Clint Benedict to play goal for the balance of the season. Benedict is a member of the New Edinburgh Hockey team, champions of the Inter-Provincial Amateur Hockey Union, and challengers for the Allan cup. The Capitals have been after the youngster all the season. Jack Shea and Jack Ashfield, two of the fastest defence fielders that ever wore the Capital colors, have quit owing to friction with Smith.
