Unemployed Hold Routine Meeting

Members of Organization Invited To Use Dyer Reading Room

The regular weekly meeting of the Unemployed Councils was held last night, Oscar Larson presiding. The business transacted was mainly routine. J. E. Dyer attended the meeting and invited the members to make use of the reading room he has opened at the Dyer Apartments, 1029, 3rd Avenue W., in which he has placed his own private library of rationalistic literature. The reading room will be at the service of those wishing to benefit each afternoon and evening.
Mr. Dyer was tendered an ovation of thanks for his generous offer.
