LOOKS LIKE FOOL AND HIS MONEY

Eighteen Year Old Youth Signs Away $150,000 Estate for $2,000.

(Canadian Press Despatch)

New York, July 7.—The proverb of a fool and money being soon parted was reviewed her today.

Asserting that he had been compelled to sign a note for $3,750 and assign his $150,000 interest in his father's estate, and in a policy for $5,000 insurance on his own life in order to borrow $2,200, Howard Casper, an 18-year-old youth appealed to Supreme Court Justice Page for relief. The court issued an injunction restraining the "loan brokers" from interfering with the boy's property, pending the trial of a suit to have the whole agreement set aside.

According to Casper's story, he was in desperate need some time ago of $1,800. He read an advertisement telling how easy it was to borrow, and went to the place. He was supplied with $2,200, of which he had to give back to the person who arranged the loan, $400 as commission, and gave up the security above mentioned.

Finding that he had signed away his entire fortune he brought action to have the note and assignments set aside.

ITEMS OF SPORT

Manager Mack, of the Athletics, has signed Pitcher Long, the sensational twirler of the Lafayette Clouge team.

At the present time Ty Cobb is the "eight tons of gold plate" in baseball. Ty has the highest batting average, is the leading base-stealer and run-getter in the major leagues, and the first big leaguer to drive out 100 hits this season.

Ty Cobb by hitting safely in 31 successive games has broken the record previously held by Hal Chase. The thirty-first hit was made in the game of June 20 against Cleveland, when he rapped a fluke home run which hit first base and bounded into the bleacher base and bounded into the bleachers for his only bungle of the game.

Four French fistic champions may visit America this fall. They are: Moreau, middleweight champion; Carpenter, welterweight champion; Eustache, lightweight champion, and De Poncheau, featherweight champion.

Ernie Murray, the dashing home fielder who was with Vancouver lacrosse team part of last season, and then went on strike along with the rest of the home brews, has signed a contract to play with the Westminsters for the rest of the season.

Mike Mitchell, the former Portland outfielder, may be made manager of Cincinnati. A report has it that Clarke Griffiths has been given until July 1st to put the Reds in winning form and, if he fails, the reins will be turned
