THE NOMINATIONS

With three candidates definitely in the field the election campaign may now be said to be well under way. Electors will, doubtless, look over the list of candidates well and make their decisions between now and election day. It should not be a difficult matter to choose.

The name of T. D. Pattullo is so outstanding that there seems little doubt as to what the electors will do. People who have at heart the interests of the city of Prince Rupert will hardly take the chance of turning down the leader of the party that is likely to sweep the province.

NO INDEPENDENTS

While there is always a possibility that there may be an independent in the field in Prince Rupert, such an eventuality does not seem probable. The city is to be congratulated on not having such a candidate. Here is what Dr. Harris says of them:

"The independents are a curious collection of derelicts. They are independent, certainly, of three things:

"Independent of loyalty, because they deserted their leader.

"Independent of ideas, because they haven't had any for five years.

"Independent of decency, because they didn't discover they were independent until after the last pay cheque came out.

"If the Daily Province thinks it can make a cabinet out of these kind of derelicts, then it is welcome to it."

September Heaviest Building Month in Nearly Two Years; Outlay Recorded at $11,500

Building permits issued in the city of Prince Rupert during the month of September this year totalled $11,500 in value, this figure being the highest for any single month in the last two years with but one exception—March, 1932 when the value was $12,965. This year's building value for September compares with $2,425 in the same month last year and was well ahead of any September in the past six years. Building on the aggregate for this year, however, standing at $27,832, is considerably lower than $50,645 in the first nine months of 1932.

Permits issued during September this year were as follows:

Canadian Legion, extension of building, Third Avenue, $5,000.

Albert & McCaffery, ice making plant, waterfront, $4,000.

M. T. Lee, rebuilding residence, Sixth Avenue West, $2,000.

George Rorie, foundation repairs, Fourth Avenue West, $100.

First United Church, repairs, Sixth Avenue West, $100.

George Tyson, roof repairs, 845 First Avenue, $50.

Ben Dalgarno, repairing foundation, 228 Fourth Avenue West, $150.

McCaffery and Collart, alterations to building (Van's Bakery), Third Avenue, $100.

EDUCATION QUESTION

Editor, Daily News:—
Some time ago at a public meeting a committee of citizens was appointed to investigate the local educational situation. Considerable time has been spent in this study and the committee has arrived at a policy which it feels will be in the best interests of all concerned.

At this time the committee would draw the attention of the public to the apparent change of heart of those in charge of formulating the educational policy. Whereas it was once stated that those who did not pay the fee by a certain date would be "stricken from the roll," a new policy is indicated by a questionnaire sent recently by the city solicitor to the parents who have not yet paid the fee, promising a consideration of each individual case upon its merits.

The committee feels that the questionnaire does not altogether meet the situation and it is hoped in the course of a few days to place some helpful suggestions before the parents and the commissioner.

Yours truly,
W. D. GRANT HOLLINGWORTH
C. D. CLARKE,
ANNABELLA STUART,
S. D. MACDONALD,
D. MACPHEE.

Mrs. W. R. McAfee and family, who have been on a visit to Vancouver where a sister of Mrs. McAfee was recently married, returned home from the south on the Prince George this morning. They were accompanied by Mrs. George McAfee who will visit here.
