SKEENA RIVER COTTONWOOD

The cottonwood timber of this district, of which there suming sole ownership of The Evis an enormous stand in the lower Skeena Valley and a ening Post, which he had pursmaller yet still important one at Alice Arm, apparently chased a few days earlier. presents an opportunity for more or less immediate industrial development hereabouts. The Chamber of Commerce last Friday night was informed that eastern veneer manu- yachting. facturing interests, who are contemplating expansion with a plant on the Pacific Coast when times get better, thropic, contributing generously to have been favorably impressed by the Power Corporation institutions. His gifts seldom gainof Canada with the possibility of locating at Prince Ru- ed publicity but an exception was pert. On Tuesday the Gyro Club heard that the Forest made when he presented $1.000.000 Branch here had received one inquiry from England and to the University of Pennsylvania. two from China as to the possibility of obtaining large supplies of alder and cottonwood timber from this district W for export.

The establishment of a veneer mill at Prince Rupert is an industry much to be desired, but it has been made clear that it will at least be some little time before anything definite on such a project may be expected to develop. The export inquiries, on the other hand, appear to have a more immediate possibility. While it is desirable that no stone should be left unturned in encouraging such a mill to come here eventually, it also seems very important that every Reich, has told the council of the effort possible should be made to get the export business League of Nations that Germany meantime. An order for eight or twelve million feet of will restore the Jews in Upper Sicottonwood or alder timber at this time would be very ac- lesia to the positions they have lost ceptable to the people of the district and would mean a lot since the beginning of Chancellor
