The Holy Spirit and Christian Victory

(Rev. F. W. Dafoe, D.D., First Baptist Church).
In the eighth chapter of the Roman letter we find a great paean of Christian victory following the description of conflict and the cry for help in the seventh chapter.

> > The victory of the Christian is unusual in the weapons used. When God has His way in the heart it become possible to love the enemies, not sin, but the sinners. Then we are willing to sacrifice that these enemies may be blessed. In other words our progress against evil is not by our own efforts, not by might nor by power, but by God's Spirit within the Christian. The victory of the Christian is sure if he depends on the Holy Spirit. The world did it's worst to defeat Jesus, yet He said, "Be of good cheer, I have overcome the world." The Christian, if he allows the Holy Spirit to work for him, may have the same assurance of victory in the face of defeat. He may say with Paul: "in all these thi gs we are more than conquerors through Him that lov-

If doing God's will means victory for the Christian, how much care he should take to pray "Thy will be done" before entering the conflict Let us pray until the inner struggle is over and God has won. Then we may have peace and the calm assurance of victory as THE WAS THE PROPERTY OF THE PARTY OF THE

There is a buoyancy in the air!

The day of business paralysis was yesterday.

Today revised conditions demand action.

Every dollar wisely put to work means more pay envelopes and consequent buying power.

Every mother's son is involved in this new phase of commercial revival. Remember when you spend a dollar it stimulates trade.

What do you need?

Why delay the gratification of the need?

Don't hold back because you feel it unseemly to buy what you want.

BUY THE THINGS YOU WANT IF YOU HAVE THE MONEY TO SPEND
