Pattullo's Refusal Does Not Necessarily Wreck Plan, Says President of Council-As For Himself, He Is Bound to No One

VICTORIA, March 30: (CP)-Hope that the Legislature would not be allowed to prorogue without consummating union government was voiced by Hon. W. C. Shelly, President of the Council, during the budget debate yesterday. With the close of Mr. Shelly's speech, the debate on the budget closed without division. The House then

Mr. Shelly, during his speech, expressed regret that the Leader of the Opposition had been unable to accept the invitation of Premier Tolmie but he did not think that this ended chances of union. One method had been tried and failed. Another must now be tried.

"Speaking as one who owes no great obligation to anyone in this House," Mr. Shelly proceeded, "who is free to speak exactly as he thinks and who has no political ambition whatever, I say that no man's personality, no man's personal interests and no man's personal future is big enough to wreck this union.
