Youth for Whom Ransom Was Demanded Comes to His Death Near Capital

Police Working on Three Theories-May Have Been Suicide, Might Have Fallen From Embankment or Been Thrown Out of Car

VICTORIA, April 24: (Canadian Press)-Positively identified as being that of Stewart Ashley, missing 19year old Vancouver substitute teacher, a body was pulled out of the slough on Industrial Reserve yesterday. It has cleared up the disappearance of the young man but the cause of death is, as yet, undetermined. Police say it may have been suicide or, alternatively, Ashley could have been walking on the track and tumbled down the embankment or could have been CONTINUING thrown from a motor car while coming from Esquimalt into the

Ashley left his home in Vancouver on April 13, going to the Young Further Progress Reported to Have Men's Christian Association and Been Made by Roosevelt and then dropping out of sight. His MacDonald in Their father, David T. Ashley, received a Conversations purported ransom note, demanding $5000 and threatening death for the youth if it were not received. The elder Ashley turned the matter over to the police.
