FIRST ENTHUSIASM

The intense enthusiasm which accompanied the first movement of Canadian troops overseas when the call came to this part of the Empire nearly twenty years ago will be recalled tomorrow. It was a very real sacrifice. The general opinion was that the men went to their certain death. They sold or gave away all their belongings. There was to be no return.

Some of those men are with us today but many remained on the fields of France and Flanders. Happily their spirit is still with us. In spite of much of the sordidness of modern life, there is still a spirit of self-sacrifice abroad in the land inspired by the memory of those splendid men who went overseas. We can see them today marching to their ship to the music of the military bands, with spectators weeping and smiling through their tears in order to cheer the boys on. Women cheered as they wept. Others, dry-eyed, felt their hearts broken yet not one would have reversed the decision to go at the country's call.

It was a wonderful spirit that developed throughout the Empire in those days. It was a wonderful spirit that made everybody carry on, glad to deny themselves anything and everything in order that the men overseas might be kept supplied. This spiritual effect is the great reflex of the awfulness of the carnage which took place. Tomorrow let us all join with the little remnant that is still left in keeping alive the memory of that wonderful time, those tremendous sacrifices, that joyous outburst that came on Armistice Day.

PLAY VERY ENJOYABLE

"Oh Susan" Provides Breezy Entertainment at St. Andrew's Cathedral Hall

Presented by a happily selected cast of young people under the capable direction of S. P. Woodside, the droll four-act comedy farce "Oh Susan" provided bright and breezy entertainment for a large and appreciative audience in St. Andrew's Anglican Cathedral Hall last evening. The play, staged under the auspices of the Amateur Dramatic Society of the Cathedral, will be repeated tonight and, in view of the favorable comment which the first presentation elicited, will, doubtless, be rewarded with another full house.

The plot is a novel one and is far from being burdensome as amateur theatricals sometimes are. Members of the cast each play their roles with credit to themselves and their director and everything went off very smoothly last night. The interest of the audience was kept well sustained until the final curtain. The acts are not long which is really an advantage.

Principal members of the cast in romantic roles are Miss Elizabeth McLeod, whose talent is well known and who is consistently popular; and Bill Tobey, whose style appears different at first but which is nevertheless very effective. Mrs. F. N. Good, Miss Helen McLeod and Miss Margaret McLeod have important parts which they portray in fine style while character roles are depicted by William Elkins, Miss Eileen Green, Johnny Comadina, Miss Eileen Gibson and Mr. Woodside, each of whom are good.

The Junior Symphony Orchestra under direction of Bert Cameron played selections at opening and closing and between acts, the evening's program being distinctly enhanced thereby.

At the close of the program last evening, Dean Gibson spoke briefly, expressing appreciation of the large audience and of the work of Mr. Woodside, the director, and the cast.

Bob Tobey was in charge of properties and electrical effects were loaned by Gordon's Hardware. Stanley Dalby presided at the door. Misses E. Rivett and Joan Cross being in charge of seating arrangements.

To Canadian Youth Who Fell in France

Your dreams were sealed so long ago. When the vibrant call of youth was stilled. Your hopes, desires, and love preserved. Await fulfillment of the years.

To Him that gave, your dream returns Unmarred, that He may take again And fashion with immutable design His imprint of divinity.

For we that tread the desert years Where all lays broken in the sands, Have naught to guide us save the star That gleams the brighter for your dream.

CANOE FOR HONEYMOON

Mrs. Robert Tomlinson Had Many and Varied Experiences in North

CEDARVALE, November 10—The death occurred here on Tuesday at the home of her daughter, Mrs. A. S. Tordiffe, Mrs. Alice Mary Tomlinson, widow of the late Rev. Robert Tomlinson, formerly of Meamskinish.

Mrs. Tomlinson was born at Parsonstown, Ireland, in 1851, coming to Victoria when ten years old with her parents, the late Richard and Anne Woods, Mr. Woods was for a time sheriff and also registrar at Victoria in the early days.

In 1886, Alice Mary was married to Rev. Robert Tomlinson, missionary to the Naas Indians for the Church, Missionary Society, London, England. Their honeymoon was spent in journeying in an open native canoe, manned by eight natives, from Victoria to Kincolith on the Naas river where at that time Mr. Tomlinson was stationed.

Mrs. Tomlinson had numerous and varied experiences in her missionary work, suffering many privations and even dangers but, on the whole, enjoyed good health up to the last few years, and while not seeming critically ill, has been ailing and the end was not unexpected.

Deceased is survived by two sons, Robert, at New Metlakalla, Alaska, and Thomas Richard of Cedarvale, and three daughters, Mrs. A. S. Tordiffe and Mrs. W. W. Moberly of Cedarvale, and Mrs. G. Douglas of Parksville, Vancouver Island.

The funeral was held at the village church at Meamskinish and burial was made beside deceased's husband, who passed away in 1913. Many friends were gathered to pay their respects to one who was more to many of them than just a friend and neighbor. She will be remembered especially by those who knew her in early days for her kind loving sympathy to all. She was the first pioneer missionary woman to take up permanent residence in Northern B.C. coming to Kincolith in 1868. Also she was one of the best of the real pioneer missionaries.

Quick Relief Now From Neuralgia

JACK, I'M TO SEE CLARK ABOUT THAT BIG ORDER IN 40 MINUTES AND I HAVE TERRIFIC NEURALGIA... WHAT CAN I DO?

DON'T WORRY! GET SOME ASPIRIN. TWO TABLETS WILL STOP THAT PAIN IN A FEW MINUTES.

2 LATER
WELL, JACK, I GOT THE ORDER! YES, FELT FIT AS A PIDDLE... YOU BET, I'LL ALWAYS GET ASPIRIN WHEN I WANT QUICK RELIEF FROM PAIN.

Real ASPIRIN Starts Taking Hold in Few Minutes

Now comes amazingly quick relief from headaches, rheumatism, neuritis, neuralgia... the fastest safe relief, it is said, yet discovered.

Those results are due to a scientific discovery by which an Aspirin Tablet begins to dissolve, or disintegrate, in the amazing space of two seconds after touching moisture. And hence to start "taking hold" of pain a few minutes after taking.

The illustration of the glass, here, tells the story. An Aspirin Tablet starts to disintegrate almost instantly you swallow it. And this is ready to go to work almost instantly.

When you buy, though, be on guard against substitutes. To be sure you get ASPIRIN's quick relief, be sure the name Bayer in the form of a cross is on every tablet of Aspirin.

WHY ASPIRIN WORKS SO FAST
Drop an Aspirin Tablet in a glass of water. Note that BEFORE it touches bottom, it has started to disintegrate.
What it does in this glass it does in your stomach. Hence its fast action.
