MISSIONARY FILM DISPLAY INTERESTS

Some 125 children were present in the hall of First Presbyterian Church last Friday evening when Rev. W. D. Grant Hollingworth, the pastor, gave a display of magic lantern slides depicting work of the missions of the church among the children of Formosa and India. The views proved of much interest to all.

We Think It Is B. C.

The actual source of the exceptional quality of Pacific Milk is a secret. We think the place where it lies is in the milk-making elements of British Columbia. Specialists say the milk here is better than in many parts of the world. One expert said Pacific is better than the milk produced in his country.

BAZAAR IS ENJOYABLE

Annual Affair of Lief Erikson Ladies' Club Last Night in Metropole Hall

The annual bazaar of the Lief Erikson Ladies' Club (Hygga), held last Friday night in the Metropole Hall, attracted a crowd of about two hundred persons and proved to be a very successful affair.

I. Ingebringson, president of the Lief Erikson Society, opened the proceedings and an interesting program was rendered by the Varden Singers and its members. At midnight refreshments were served.

Winners in the raffles were as follows:

Cushion and centrepiece, won by Eldor Anderson, No. 79.

Luncheon set, won by Mrs. Ingeborg Jensen, No. 51.

Cushion and runner, won by Alfred Wikdal, No. 67.

A number of other articles were also drawn for.

Dancing was enjoyed until 3 a.m., accordion music being furnished by Julius Welle.

Union steamer Cardena, Capt. Ernest Georgeson, was in port last Friday evening, arriving at 10:40 p.m. from the south and sailing at 12 midnight on her return to Vancouver and waypoints.

G. E. Gulick, local manager of the Swift-Canadian Co., is making the round trip to Anyox and Stewart aboard the steamer Catala on company business, having sailed last evening for the north.

Announcement is made at the city ticket office of the Canadian National Railways of the extension of the selling date for round trip summer excursion rail tickets to the east from October 31 to November 30, the return limit being extended to December 15.

With a fair-sized list of passengers, Union steamer Catala, Capt. A. E. Dickson, arrived on good time at 4:30 yesterday afternoon from the south and sailed at 8 p.m. for Anyox and Stewart as well as other northern points whence she will return here tomorrow morning southbound.

On a regular voyage to Skagway and other Alaska points, C.P.R. steamer Princess Norah, Capt. William Palmer, arrived in port at 10:30 this morning from Vancouver and sailed an hour later for the north. She is due back here Friday afternoon southbound. The vessel had twenty passengers on board of whom six disembarked here.

The condition of Mrs. Norman A. Watt, who has been seriously ill for the last few weeks in the Prince Rupert General Hospital, is reported to be critical. Mr. Watt who left for Terrace at the end of the week on official business, was called home by speeder yesterday afternoon. Mrs. Watt's brother, Milton Acheson of Vegreville, Alberta, arrived from there on Saturday night's train.
