LOCAL NEWS NOTES

George Frizzell returned to the city on the Cardena yesterday afternoon from a brief business trip to Port Essington.

Mrs. Hoy of Brunswick Cannery and Mr. and Mrs. Bunting of Levee Rivers, Inlet passengers on board the steamer Cardena last evening going through to Vancouver.

G. P. Lyons of the Canadian Fish & Cold Storage Co. office staff, who has been on a vacation trip to Vancouver, returned to the city from the south on the Princess Adelaide yesterday afternoon.

Constable J. D. E. Stewart of Bella Coola, having resigned from the provincial force, was a passenger aboard the Cardena last evening going through to Vancouver. His successor, Constable H. A. Wellens, who has been a member of the detachment here for the past few months, sailed on the Cardena to assume his new duties at Bella Coola, being accompanied by Mrs. Wellens and son.

Just arrived fine selection of dance frocks. Demers. 302

Demers wish all their customers and friends a Happy and Prosperous New Year. 302

T. Aitken, storekeeper at Bishop Bay, logging camp near Butedale, was a passenger aboard the Cardena last evening going through for a vacation trip to Vancouver.

As a result of a collision on the main street of Smithers on Christmas Day between automobiles driven by William A. Wedge and Joshua Holland, Wedge has been fined $10 by Stipendiary Magistrate R. L. Gale of Smithers on a charge of driving to the common danger, according to information received at divisional headquarters of the provincial police here. Wedge was found to be driving on the wrong side of the street.

The annual Sunday School Christmas Tree entertainment took place a few nights ago in the social parlors of First Presbyterian Church, a large crowd of children with a number of parents being in attendance. A brief but acceptable program was rendered after which Santa Claus paid a visit, distributing books and sweets to all. Rev. W. D. Grant Hollingworth, the pastor, presided and was in general charge.

Sea Cadets' Dance Enjoyable Affair

Sixty Young Folk Present at Function Last Night in R.C.N.V.R. Headquarters.

Another very pleasant dance was held last night at headquarters of the Royal Canadian Naval Volunteer Reserve by the local Sea Cadets, about sixty young people being present at the affair which was in charge of Chief Petty Officer Instructor Anslow. Dancing commenced at 9 p.m. and concluded at 1 a.m. A musical program included violin solos by Miss Phyllis Hamblin and vocal solos by Misses Betty Ellison, Aileen Hamblin and Betty Woods. Delicious refreshments were served.

We are very much indebted to all our customers and friends for their past business and take much pleasure in wishing them—

A VERY HAPPY AND PROSPEROUS NEW YEAR
