Comedy—"THE BUILD D 'Sleeples Nights," which is the mid week feature on the screen of th Capitol Theatre here. The main highlights of the sprightly picture are the lilting musical numbers introduced in such a droll manner.

The stars are Stanley Lupino and Polly Walker who find themselves aboard a yacht regarded in the public eye as being married. Matters become even more complicated when the couple find that they are beginning to care for each other. Everything, of course, comes out right in the end after the audience has been provided with much sidesplitting laughter at the comicalities of the delightful pair.

"Just One More Kiss," "I Don't Want to Go to Bed" and "With All My Heart" are among the popular songs heard in the picture.
